NEW FIRE LIMITS ARE PROPOSED FOR THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO

HOW THE PAPER TRUST WAS BEATEN

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Attorney-General Moody upon being questioned concerning the significance of the action of the defendants in withdrawing their answer to the Government bill in the so-called paper trust case today at St. Paul, said:

"This action on the part of the constituent companies of the paper trust terminates the litigation by the entry of a judgment for all the Government demanded in its bill and is a complete victory for the United States. They manufacture substantially the sole supply of news print and fibre paper of the district west of Chicago and east of the Rocky Mountains.

ILLEGAL COMBINATION.

"During the summer and autumn of 1905 [illegible] amount of testimony was taken [illegible] ch tended to show the existence of the illegal combination as charged in the bill. During the taking of the testimony certain of the defendant corporations refused to exhibit their books and answer questions on the ground that such evidence was immaterial and that it would tend to incriminate them. Proceedings were thereupon instituted in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin and in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota, to punish for contempt for refusing to produce books and answer questions. These cases were argued in the Supreme Court of the United States on the second day of January, 1906, with the case of Hale vs. Henkel, commonly known as the 'Tobacco Trust' case.

QUESTIONS INVOLVED.

"The same questions were involved in the paper trust case that were involved in the tobacco trust case and the decisions of the Supreme Court in the two cases were rendered at the same time. These decisions practically disposed of the defense in the paper trust case, and resulted in the proceedings in the Circuit Court at St. Paul this morning, by which final judgment has been found in favor of the government."

Beyond the facts that pistols were used and that two shots were exchanged at twenty-five paces, no details were obtainable as this dispatch was filed.

COURT IN SESSION.

TO CLOSE SALOONS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—If Sheriff Mansfield of San Mateo county can close the saloons that have opened up for business just across the county line, he has given his assurance that he will do it, in the following letter received by Chief of Police Dinan this morning in regard to the matter:

"J. F. Dinan, Esq., Chief of Police, S. F.—Dear Chief: Yours of the 7th inst. at hand relative to the friends who are running joints on the San Bruno road. I denounce it as an outrage and have done my best to keep them closed, but I am almost powerless as each Supervisor seems to be running his own township and I understand they have given permits to open up.

"I had them all closed up for a while. I had a talk with the chairman of the Board today, and he told me he would stand to revoke or refuse to grant any license to any place who does any business in the liquor traffic.

"I sent a deputy to warn any and all of them along the roads. No one but a hog fiend and a brute would do business under present circumstances. However, if I can't control the matter I will ask the Governor to put the county under martial law.

"Assuring you I will do all in my power to close them and hoping to see our dear old 'Frisco grander than ever, and that we will soon enjoy the prosperity we lost. You can depend on me to stand for all that is for the common good of the city and State.

Yours Very Truly,

"J. H. MANSFIELD, Sheriff."

The reference to "hog fiends" made by the doughty sheriff in his letter is applied to the industry of hog raising which is largely pursued in that particular district.

TO HOLD MEETING.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The counties committee of the California Promotion Committee, representing the one hundred and fifty-six commercial organizations of California, will hold its semi-annual meeting at Napa, Cal., on Saturday, June 16, 1906.

TO MOVE REFUSE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—From now on the people of this city must pay their own scavengers, as they did prior to the fire. In order to preserve the health of the city the Citizens' Committee ordered a general cleaning of the city and paid for it out of the public purse, but now this expense must stop.

The scavengers are ready to resume work and the police are notifying the inhabitants throughout the city that they must make their own arrangements for the carting away of their refuse.

The scavengers will haul it to the water front where it will be loaded onto barges and emptied out at sea, until an incinerating plant can be established.

AUTO HITS A WAGON

In attempting to avoid an aproaching electric car, a chauffeur this morning ran his machine into a wagon of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company that was standing at the northwest corner of Sixth street and Broadway. No one was hurt, but the wagon was overturned and the front part of the automobile was demolished.

On the front seat of the automobile was the chauffeur, and on the rear was W. T. Sesnon, of 3330 Washington, street, San Francisco, and a woman whom he was taking to the city across the bay. They were speeding for the creek route ferry and at Sixth street James Bugle, driver of the telephone wagon, had stopped to give water to his horses. The approaching car caused the chauffeur to suddenly change the course of his machine and the collision was the result.

Bugle was thrown to the ground, but a scratch on his hand was the only injury he received. The contents of the wagon were scattered on the ground, but the only damage was to the glass insulations that were broken. The occupants of the automobile escaped with a shaking up that Sesnon said might aptly be compared to the recent earthquake.

QUEEN IS INJURED

BERLIN, May 11.—The Dowager Queen Emma of the Netherlands, mother of Queen Wilhelmina, was thrown from an automobile at Steinfurt, Westphalia, today. The machine struck a butcher's wagon, ejecting Her Majesty and Prince von Bentheim-Steinfurt.

The Queen-Mother was bruised, but resumed her ride.

COURTS ARE OPEN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The police courts opened up for business today in rooms at the Lowell-street High School and it is expected that what little business has to be done can be transacted here until permanent quarters can be secured. The police department is also located in the same building, which serves very well the purposes for which it is being used. Four of the rooms have been cleared of desks for use as courts and Judges Cabaniss, Mogan, Conlan and Shortall will take up the work of dispensing evenhanded justice to those unfortunate enough to be brought up before them.

ARREST PEDDLER

CAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Fred G. Hammil was brought from Oakland this morning, where he was arrested for having in his possession 156 gold pieces worth about 25 cents each, $29.15 in burnt coins and forty-eight curios which he was peddling as souvenirs of the fire.

Chief of Detectives Burnett said this morning: "We want an owner for the stuff, if one can be found, and in the meantime Hammil is being held on the detinue book as his story is somewhat improbable. He says that he saw a man opening a safe near Merchant street and after taking out everything he considered of any value he told him that he could have all that he could find and that he went through the safe and picked up this stuff."

Hammil was taken out to the Stanyan street police station, where he is being held.

CHILD IS VICTIM

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Coroner Walsh was notified today of the death of Frank Markey, a child six years of age, at the German Hospital. The lad was injured some time ago by a piece of falling timber. An operation was necessary which he failed to survive.

GAMBLING CHARGE.

Irving Marks, Frank Haley and Walter Baker appeared before Judge Samuels this morning to answer to a charge of gambling. All three cases were continued to May 21 to be set.

SUBJECT IS UNDER DISCUSSION

Plan Lines Embracing Entire District West of Van Ness Avenue and Eleventh Street.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The extending of the fire limits of the city was a matter that brought out a deal of discussion at the meeting of the Building Committee this morning at the headquarters at Sutter and Gough streets. The threshing out of the matter with a view to finding out just what was the best thing to be done under the circumstances caused the expression of a variety of ideas upon this subject.

Frank Shea, on the score that the extension of the fire limits south of Market street would mean practically the forcing of many small property owners to sell out their holdings, was not in favor of extending them at all, while others had schemes for the embracing of almost the entire district west of Van Ness avenue and Eleventh street.

OPINION BY THE FIRE CHIEF.

Fire Chief Shaunessey was called upon for an expression of opinion on the subject and stated that he believed that fire limits should be established and he was in favor of extending them in certain directions, the details of which, however, was a matter yet to be considered.

He stated that by a fireproof building he only meant one that had an outside casing of brick or cement, and did no mean an incombustible building, such as had withstood the fire.

SUGGESTS DIVISION OF CITY INTO FOUR PARTS.

Abe Ruef, in addressing the committee upon this subject, stated he had considered the matter with a good deal of attention and made a motion that for the purposes of the discussion the city be divided into four parts. Using Van Ness avenue and Eleventh street as a dividing line, to cut the city in half and Market street to quarter. This division was proposed as a means of simplifying the discussion, and was adopted.

He then stated in general terms that he believed that the fire limits should embrace the territory from where Powell street runs into the bay up Powell to Pine street and out Pine to Van Ness avenue. On the north side of Market he also thought the line should run from Powell street down Pacific street to the water front.

IN FAVOR OF WIDENING OF STREETS.

He stated that such a line would cut out portions of Russian Hill and around Telegraph Hill where the land was not valuable, and would not warrant the building of the better class of buildings, and would also leave out the residence portion of "Nob Hill," where there was little necessity for fire limits to be established.

He stated that as a member of the committee on the widening of the streets that the committee would in all probability recommend the widening of Pacific street to 100 feet in width, which would make this street a fire break in case of another confiagration.

He also stated that he believed that the nature of the business should control the kind of building it should have and thought that every warehouse, stable and lodging house should be fireproof.

EXTENSION OF LIMITS FAVORED BY SOME.

Supervisor Gallagher, who acted as chairman of the meeting stated that in the consideration of this matter the point should not be lost sight of that they all wanted people to come back and commence the rebuilding of their homes and that the limits should not be so extended as to make rebuilding prohibitive.

Ruef, in completing his general boundary of the fire limits, said that the committee on the widening of streets would also probably recommend the widening of Eleventh street and that he believed that the fire limits, whic hformerly extended out to Ninth street, should be extended out to Eleventh street, and down Eleventh street to Townsend street and the water front.

Frank Shea, in expressing himself, stated that by making such a large district many small property owners would be forced to sell out their possessions, as they could not afford to put up buildings to meet the requirements. He though that the fire limits should not be extended at all.

PROPOSE FIRE LIMIT WITHIN FIRE LIMIT.

Another suggestion was made that there should be a fire limit within a fire limit, and that there should be a certain portion of the city along Market street upon which nothing but incombustible buildings be erected.

It was also stated that the centering of the interests of the Southern Pacific, the Santa Fe and Western Pacific railways south of Market would so enhance the value of property there that it would be too valuable to erect the innumerable small buildings of wood that were there formerly.

The discussion was not completed at the time of the sending of this dispatch, but the general impression prevails that some such outline as indicated by Ruef will be recommended by the committee to the Board of Supervisors

SYNDICATE TRIES TO GRAB, SAYS DALTON

Asserts That the Corporation Is Attempting to Appropriate Property Owned by His Company for Thirty Years.

Yesterday afternoon Henry P. Dalton had three men arrested for driving piles in the bay fronting property owned by the Henry Dalton & Sons Company, of which Mr. Dalton is a member. The men were promptly bailed out by officials of the Realty Syndicate. Speaking of the matter today, Assessor Dalton said the Key Route people were simply trying to grab property of which his firm had been in peaceable possession for thirty-one years. And he did not hesitate to say that this could not be done without a desperate battle in the courts.

"We have been in peaceable possession of the property at Tenth and Cedar streets ever since 1875," said Mr. Dalton, "and we have used it continuously during all that time.

"We have a frontage on the bay of 495 feet and our intention was to dredge a strip 150 feet wide to the bulkhead line, using the dredgings to fill in 172 feet and six inches on each side. On these fills we intended to build docks and warehouses. The plans for all this were drawn and approved before the earthquake, which, of course, delayed the work.

"While our men were at work yesterday driving piling along the continuation of Tenth street, the men of the Realty Syndicate attacked them, cut loose our pile driver and set it adrift. They attacked our men while they were eating their lunch.

"They also tore up the piling that we had already put down. It was a simple case of an effort to grab our property. We had some of their men arrested and they caused the arrest of two of our men for disturbing the peace.

"It is evidently the intention of the Key Route people to build a bulkhead between its pier and that of the Southern Pacific and to fill in with dredgings. This would cut us off from the water and deprive us of a means of transportation that we have employed continuously for thirty-one years—we have reached our foundry by rail and water, both—which is manifestly a great advantage.

"Just what will be our next move I do not know, as the matter is in the hands of our attorneys, Snook & Church. It is probable, however, that the arrests of yesterday were merely preliminary skirmishes and that a battle in the courts will be the final outcome. Certainly we will not allow any corporation or anybody to grab our property without a desperate struggle. Our riparian rights are certain and if the matter goes to the courts, it will be the first time here that water front litigation will be based squarely upon the riparian rights. The laws of the country regarding riparian rights are clearly defined. They are taken from the common law of England, which has always recognized the right of an upland owner to reach water and nothing is allowed to interfere with that right.

"The statement given out by the Syndicate people that they have rights under the water front decision of the Supreme Court is all nonsense. A navigable approach to our property has been kept open and continuously used by us for thirty-one years and this channel the Syndicate proposes to close up and seize for their own use without a shadow of right. Our right to free access to deep water is confirmed by the Supreme Court decision referred to, and is a right common to all owners of water front property. The Syndicate people are trying to confiscate an established right conferred by water front ownership and monopolize all the water approaches to Oakland not controlled by the Southern Pacific. It is a barefaced grab."

NURSE APPEALS TO THE POLICE

Behind a charge of disturbing the peace, filed against A. M. Christensen by Mrs. C. Schafer this morning, is the story of an alleged brutal attempt to extort money because of the calamity which destroyed San Francisco. Mrs. Schafer said this morning that she had rented a room from Christensen for the last four months, paying her rent each week as it became due, and that as soon as the demand for rooms became greater than the supply, her landlord, without any notice, informed her that her rent would be doubled, and when she declared that she would not pay the increase until after she had been given legal notice, threw her belongings from the apartment and rented the room to another party.

Mrs. Schafer is a professional nurse, but being well along in years, finds it hard to fight the battle of life, and when she was driven into the street without warning she appealed to the police for protection.

Christensen's case was set for trial for May 16.

ALLEGED DISTURBERS OF PEACE ARRAIGNED.

J. H. Stack, Robert Scott and W. E. Clark, arrested at the instance of Henry P. Dalton on charges of disturbing the peace, were arraigned in Department 1 of the Police Court this morning and their cases were continued to May 12 to file complaints.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS.

John J. Colner, a printer, seventy years old, slipped and fell down a flight of stairs at the headquarters of the Typographical Union on Eleventh street last evening. He fell headfore most and it was thought at first that his skull was fractured, but on examination by Dr. Stratton at the Receiving Hospital proved this not to be the case. His condition was greatly improved this morning and he was declared to be out of danger.

PROTEST AT USE OF ARMS

ROME, May 11.—All the Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies have resigned as a result of the refusal of the Chamber to discuss the bill presented by their party providing for the regulation of the use of arms on the part of the police and troops, and have issued an address to the country.

During the day a largely attended meeting of strikers was held in the Coliseum. Socialist Deputies delivered inflammatory speeches, and a resolution protesting against the use of arms against the people was adopted.

Later collisions between the strikers and the police and troops took place and several hours elapsed before the demonstrators were finally dispersed.

MRS. JEFF DAVIS REPORTED BETTER.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who has been ill with the grippe for several days in her apartments in the Hotel Gerard, was reported much improved today.

SAYS H DID NOT COMMIT SUICIDE.

Professor G. Cadenasso, of Mills College, is alive, well and happy, despite published reports to the contrary. He went directly to the college as soon as he could leave the city and is now busy with his classes and improving his time out of doors. He is the last man to do such a foolish thing as to commit suicide. He has never uttered a word of complaint at his losses.

Professor Cadenasso had a suit of clothes hanging in his studio and he infers some refugee took them after the earthquake and arrayed himself in this suit and so tried to conceal his identity.

TO BE ARCHBISHOP.

ROME, May 11.—It is expected here that Mgr. Guiseppe Aversa, formerly secretary of the Congregation for Extraordinary Affairs, who was charged with an ecclesiastical mission to Cuba, will soon be made an archbishop, and that he will also be definitely appointed Apostolic Delegate to Cuba and Porto Rico, in succession to the late Archbishop Chappelle, of New Orleans.

WILY TURK SPARRING

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 11.—Tewfik Pasha, the Foreign Minister, called at the British Embassy yesterday and made proposals in regard to the Tabah questions which Ambassador O'Connor unhesitatingly rejected. The Pasha was informed that any compromise suggestions were quite inadmissible and nothing less than absolute compliance with the British demands would prevent drastic action. The Ambassador also warned the Minister that the time was running short, and compelled him to be under no misapprehension in regard to the determination of Great Britain to enforce the Turkish evacuation of Egyptian territory on the Sinai peninsula and a joint delimiation of the frontier.

Tewfik Pasha returned to the palace and an immediate meeting of the Council of Ministers was summoned.

EXPECT SETTLEMENT.

CAIRO, Egypt, May 11.—The belief is strengthening in official circles here that a satisfactory settlement will be reached in the Tabah boundary dispute between Egypt and Turkey.

STANDARD OIL HEARING IS ON

CHICAGO, May 11.—Nearly every railroad running north, south and west from Chicago was represented today before the Interstate Commerce Commission when the investigation into the relations of the Standard Oil Company with the railroads was resumed.

Attorney Laforge, representing the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky, opened the proceedings by a cross-examination of Maywood Maxon of Illinois, who was the last witness at the hearing yesterday.

REORGANIZATION OF THE FIREMAN'S FUND.

A prominent dealer in stocks, bonds and securities, in which the Fireman's Fund has largely invested, says there is no ground for the rumor that the company has passed into the hands of a receiver, nor is there any doubt but what it will pay its obligations in full. "It is a settled fact, however," he added, "that it is to be reorganized, and the stock of the reorganized company will be given to the stockholders of the old one on some kind of a basis to be determined later. Of course, the stockholders will suffer, but I don't think the policyholders will."

CARL SCHURZ GETTING BETTER.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Carl Schurz, the publicist and former Secretary of the Interior, who has been critically ill at his home here with stomach trouble, was reported by his physician as being much better today.

DEATH CALLS CHILD

Carl M. Roberts, the three-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. J. S. Roberts, died last night at the home of his parents, 1212 Union street. The child had been in a San Francisco hospital for three months, having been placed in a plaster cast to correct an injury to the spine, but shortly after the earthquake and fire was brought to this city where death ensued.

HISTORIC PAINTINGS OF TEXAS.

An historical painting, "the Dawn of the Alamo," has lately been completed by H. A. McArdle, the well known artist, and is now on exhibition at Barr & Cone's studio, on Alamo Plaza. This is a work of deep interest to all Texans, and especially to all San Antonians, since it is the first adequate pictorial representation of the ever memorable struggle which culminated in the death of the gallant Travis and his little band of heroes.

In the picture Mr. McArdle reconstructs the Alamo as it was originally, and we see the ancient monastery fortress, covering a good part of what is now Alamo Plaza. In this work of historic reconstruction Mr. McArdle has spared no labor or expense. He has utilized every available source of information.

"The bulk of the information for this picture, 'Dawn at the Alamo,' was obtained from Captain R. M. Potter of the United States Army," said Mr. McArdle. "Captain Potter was in Texas during the fighting with the Mexicans and talked personally with his men who took part in the siege of the siege of the Alamo. He collected much curious and valuable information in this way, and his chief sources of authority were a Colonel Bradburn of Virginia, who was an officer in the Mexican army and fought at the Alamo, and Colonel Seguin, who was one of the messengers sent out of the Alamo by Travis.

H. A. McArdle, the painter to whose industry and artistic ability is the historic paintings that preserve several of the supreme events of Texas history, is a native of Ireland. His first training as an artist was secured while he was yet a boy in the old town of Belfast. He came to America while yet a mere lad and spent his young manhood in the city of Baltimore.

Mr. McArdle came to Texas on account of his wife's health in the winter of 1868. He brought with him studies of his historical painting, "Lee at the Wilderness." This picture immortalized that dramatic moment when Lee's soldiers refused to charge until the general went to the rear to a place of safety. This painting was burned in 1881 in the old state capitol at Austin.

Mr. McArdle next projected "Dawn at the Alamo," but laid that aside to paint "The Battle of San Jacinto," because participants in that battle still survived and could be used as models. This picture is a companion piece to "Dawn at the Alamo," and is painted with the same historic accuracy. Competent critics pronounce it a fine piece of work, and by a special resolution of the state legislature it hangs in the senate chamber at Austin.

In addition to these pictures already mentioned, replicas of which Mr. McArdle has made for various people, he painted other canvases of historic Texas scenes. Of these the most important are "The Settlement of Austin's Colony," now in the hall of representatives at Austin; "Milam calling for volunteers to storm San Antonio," "Deaf Smith Announcing the Destruction of Vince's Bridge," and "Henry Karnes at the Storming of San Antonio." He has also painted portraits of Sam Houston, William B. Travis, Jefferson Davis and Captain R. M. Potter.—San Antonio Express.

IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Charles Wirth and his little son were both instantly killed last Tuesday by being run down by a Southern Pacific fast passenger train at Cannon, near Elmira, while the two were riding on Mr. Wirth's motor car.

Mr. Wirth was in charge of the Southern Pacific's signal block tower and part of the system between Benicia and Sacramento, and was well known in Oakland, having been employed by the Southern Pacific for years.

Father and son were riding along the smooth rails, entirely unconscious of danger, when suddenly the shriek of a whistle was heard, and looking back Mr. Wirth saw a locomotive bearing down upon him. He stopped his motor at once, and, dismounting hurriedly, turned to snatch his son from his seat, which was behind that of the father.

But the train was too near, and before the man could grasp his child and escape from the path of the onrushing destruction, the huge wheels of the engine crashed into the vehicle, instantly killing both victims.

Other members of the party of workmen of which Mr. Wirth was at the head, were not far distant, and they took charge of the bodies and notified the authorities.

The storm was general throughout the Sacramento valley and the foothills.

A man's gratitude is always at its best just before you do him a favor.

THE OFFICE BOY GROWS SOME

Gee, I am so anxious to be big and tall that I got up on stilts so I could see farther. What a difference a little bit makes—they say "every little bit helps"—guess it does. I want to wear long pants and be a man so I can wear those swell duds we are handing out folks that's growed up,—seems to be somebody—while kids like me only appear to be in the way. "Always in the way"—even songs refer to us kids—but when we grow up and raise whiskers then we are sought out and touted around as good things and some women make goo goo eyes at us and we get foolish and—well—then trouble begins and we start in increasing the census—and that's more customers for this store. So "every little bit helps." See me at

MOTHER SEEKS STOLEN CHILD

BERKELEY, May 11.—Mrs. Emma McMahon, whose ten-year-old daughter, Ruth, was stolen away from her the time of her romantic marriage to G. M. Harrington, made an endeavor yesterday afternoon to get back her stolen child. She secretly found her former supposed husband, but he would not allow the child out of his sight, and the now Mrs. Harrington had to leave without getting her daughter back.

It appears the troubles of the McMahons have been many. McMahon, who is a boot and shoemaker by trade, has been addicted to drink, and this fact has caused frequent family jars. The McMahons have not been on this coast very long, they having lived in Illinois and various other Middle West States.

SCORES ROBBERS OF DESTITUTE

F. W. Cole, J. A. Freitas, A. F. Ericsson and John E. Gorman, who were arrested for stealing clothing consigned to the Red Cross Society for the use of the destitute people of San Francisco, while they were employed by Wells, Fargo & Co., were subjected to a severe scoring this morning by Prosecuting Attorney A. P. Leach. Mr. Leach declared that so flagrant a crime as the robbery of people who lost everything in the destruction of San Francisco by men who were entrusted with the handling and care of the relief supplies, was worthy of the most severe punishment.

Attorneys Tom Bradley and J. J. Burke are representing the men accused of robbing the destitute, and their cases were continued to May 12 to be set. The four men were arrested by Detective Seymour of San Francisco, who had been placed on the case by Wells, Fargo & Co., after it was discovered that the supplies were being stolen.

SALOON-KEEPER FREE.

The case of Joseph Cook, charged with selling liquor against the orders of the authorities during the time that the saloons of Oakland were closed after the earthquake, was stricken from the calendar of Police Judge Smith's court this morning, no complaint having been filed.

ACCUSED OF BURGLARY.

George Clackey and Henry Smith, charged with having entered the house of J. C. Petersen, were arraigned in Department 1 of the Police Court this morning, and their examination was set for May 14. Judge Smith instructed the accused men as to their rights. Before court was adjourned two additional charges of burglary were filed in each case.

CASES CONTINUED.

Ah Wong, Ah Louie and Ah Gum, charged with selling opium, had their cases continued to May 12 by Judge Smith today, pending the filing of complaints.

New Arrivals of Blankets and Comforters

Twenty Thousand Square Feet on Our Main Floor

AND EVERY INCH OF IT BUSY

Add to this our Basement Department, Ladies' Parlor and Wrapping Galleries, and you will have some idea of the dimensions and capacity of Oakland's leading home store.

Capable help—an army of it, heavily reinforced by many of those whose services will not again be required in San Francisco for a year or two. Thirty departments—some of them largely taxed during the past three weeks, but all being daily refilled now that our telegraphic and express orders are tumbling in. Twenty-eight display windows, each telling its own story of something useful fashionable, or both—a few plates of glass shy at present, but all will be working again in a few days.

It was the discovery of these facts yesterday by a San Francisco lady which caused her to remark: "I did not know there was such a fine store in Oakland until somebody told me"—that's what makes us feel good. Our policy and practice for seventeen years has been such that we are always gratified when somebody will tell of us. It is the essence of our oft-quoted remark that "our satisfied customers are our best advertisers". And we never have any dissatisfied ones because we always stand cheerfully ready to refund money or rectify errors.

RUSSIA IS HOPEFUL

ST. PETERSBURG, May 11, 11:45 a. m.—The impression left by yesterday's historical events is, on the whole, optimistic. Even the radical papers assume a rather hopeful tone. The Rech, organ of the Constitutional Democrats and now the most powerful paper in Russia, while not concealing its disappointment at the fact that the expected amnesty was not granted, on the other hand expresses its satisfaction that the emperor did not use the word "autocracy." It regard his majesty's speech as an adroit refusal to grant any further concessions, leaving the new fundamental law as the platform of the government, adding:

"But the policy of marking time while events are marching so rapidly means retreat."

The Constitutional Democrats, however, are in no wise dismayed at the prospect of having to continue the struggle. It is already apparent that they intend to nail the flag of a constitutional monarchy to their masthead, but their first efforts will be directed to forcing general political amnesty from the unwilling hands of the emperor. The deliverance of the political prisoners and those who have suffered from freedom's cause is now a passion with the masses, and it is difficult to see how the government will be able to resist.

One of the striking changes today is in the appearance of the Official Messenger, which for days and weeks had been appearing each morning with column after column of ukases and nominations, as the bureaucracy feverishly sought to get their "goods in out of the wet."

With the assembling of Parliament the end has come. Not a single ukase or nomination was printed today. The only official announcement was a rescript giving Finance Minister Kokovsoff credit for negotiating the Russian loan and decorating him with the Alexander Nevsky Order.

The Central Committee of the Constitutional Democrats is working out a reply to the speech from the throne. The principal points will be amnesty and equality of political and civil rights. But a faction is insisting on a demand for the abolition of the council of the empire. An attempt will be made to come to an agreement with the peasants, who are drawing up an independent reply. Their chief demands are amnesty, the reorganization of labor laws, the reorganization of the army, the disbanding of the Cossacks, the separation of church and state, a general extension of the schools and equal rights for all nationalities.

FEEL SHOCK IN INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 11.—A special to the News from Petersburg, Ind., says:

Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt here at 12:45 a. m. A low rumble was heard in the west and buildings quivered, windows rattled and dishes rocked. Many people jumped from their beds in fright.

The shocks were forty-five seconds apart and the first one was preceded by a vivid flash similar to lightning.

DATE CHANGED.

CINCINNATI, O., May 11.—The time for holding biennial conventions of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America was changed from the first Monday in May to the second Monday in June at the morning session of the convention today.

The report of the committee on constitution was still under discussion when adjournment was taken.

An executive board on death benefits has been created during the present convention, and the members of the board will be chosen when the election is reached, which will probably be tomorrow.

KANSAS AS AN OCTOPUS.

Is the Centralization of Wealth in the Sunflower State a Menace?

Is the country properly informed regarding the danger which menaces it by reason of the centralization of wealth in Kansas? We fear not.

Even those bulwarks of public morality and public safety, the low priced, high class magazines, to which we are prone to look or warnings of approaching peril, have been so much occupied with muck-raking of late that they have neglected this important and sacred duty.

While we have been led by the cunning of the Kansans to fasten our attention upon Wall Street and the great octopuster corporation, the Kansans themselves have been accumulating riches at a rate which may well arrest our most serious thoughts and cause us to contemplate with dark forebodings the things that are likely to happen if this sort of thing goes on for another decade.

The banking interests have been well nigh ruined in Kansas, not by a shortage but by an abundance of money. Nobody in Kansas wants to borrow. Everybody in Kansas has money to lend. All the farm mortgages have long since been lifted. So completely have the farms been stocked, and so completely have the homes of the people in town and country been furnished, that none of the surplus can be absorbed longer for such purposes.

All the grown up children of Kansas have been educated in the universities and have made the grand tour. The younger children are all in fashionable public school—schools that "have no less than $352,644,970 behind them," in the form of choice convertible real estate. These schools own in their own right no less than $10,524,769 worth of other property, on which there is a bonded indebtedness—the bonds being held for the most part by Kansans—of only $2,108,919.

But this is only one of many items which go to make a showing calculated to lead the thoughtful mind to the belief that the center of the nation's wealth, if not already shifted to Kansas, is certainly shifting that way, and that the time is not far distant when the money sharks of Kansas can have us by the throat.

We do not have daily stock quotations from Kansas, for Kansas prefers to have it understood that Wall Street is still the financial center, but there are ambitious millionaires in Leavenworth, Atchison, Topeka and Lawrence who will not long be content, we may be certain, to speculate through brokers so "far removed from the source of wealth."

Some will declare that we have nothing to fear from the Kansas octopus, that the heart of Kansas is too near to the soil and too close to the plain people ever to squeeze the rest of the country in the event of a money stringency. But these are the people who never see danger until it is upon them.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Some people manage to get up in the world by wearing high heels.

DEMANDS DIVORCE

PARIS, May 11.—The Castellane case was taken up again today for the purpose of learning if it was possible to reconcile the parties. Both Count Boni and the Countess (formerly Anna Gould) appeared in court. The latter was accompanied by her counsel, Edmond Kelley. The hearing disclosed that there was no chance of a reconciliation, the countess insisting on an absolute decree of divorce. This concluded the formal preliminaries. The countess' bill asking for absolute divorce will now be filed, the papers will be served and the case will proceed at once.

FUNERAL DRIVERS INAUGURATE STRIKE.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Several hundred funeral drivers in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx went on strike today in support of a demand that their wages be increased from $12 to $14 a week, and that no non-union men be employed and that their hours be shortened.

QUESTIONING END IN AN ARGUMENT.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—William Nelson Cromwell, of New York, counsel for the Panama Railroad Company, again was before the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals today. Senator Morgan was the examiner and he and the witness indulged in heated arguments over the right of the committee to compel answers.

Before the subject was abandoned, Senator Morgan said he would find a way to test the issue, and the witness replied "I hope you shall, for you will learn more law than you know now."

The investigation will be postponed until after the passage of the railroad rate bill.

Mr. Cromwell will be summoned by telegraph on Monday or Tuesday.

SENTENCED TO BE ELECTROCUTED.

MILWAUKEE, May 11.—Vice-President George C. Markham of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company today continued his testimony before the special legislative investigating committee. It developed that J. B. McGuire, general agent of the company in Southern Illinois, received approximately $7500 for looking after legislative matters in Illinois, during one year, and $[illegible] for another year.

Have you seen the Pillsbury Exhibit of Fire and Ruin

VIEWS?

We think we have the finest collection in existence.

Several thousand people have agreed with us during the past few days, and have shown their good faith by taking as many pictures away from our shop. Likewise, dealers on six continents have made their selections from our albums.

Ordinary facilities would not permit the filling of such orders but, since our shop turns out thirty pictures a minute, we still have a few views at prices that are right, which we believe you would buy were you to see them.

In addition to the only panorama of Burning San Francisco taken (a contact print four feet in length) we are showing three hundred different photographs picturing the result of fire and earthquake in the city, at Stanford, Santa Rosa, and elsewhere. Our new Cirkut Camera and Five Thousand of Yards Paper have just reached us from the East and our artists are now making a complete panorama of San Francisco as it is today.

GRAPPLE IS HANDICAP WINNER

NEW YORK, May 11.—Twenty-two horses of medium class went to post today in the fifteenth Metropolitan handicap, and after a mile journey over the main course at Belmont Park in one minute and thirty-nine seconds, John A. Drake's four-year-old gelding Grapple, by Woolsthorpe-Embrace, flashed under the wire a winner by three-quarters of a length. Second was F. R. Hitchcock's four-year-old Dandelion, a head in front of James McLaughlin's Oxford. Israfel, second choice in the betting, was fourth, and Roseben, the public favorite, was fifth. Roseben led into the stretch, but died away in the last furlong, his effort being a repetition of the losing race he ran ten days ago in the Excelsior handicap.

The betting against the winner was 8 to 1, and he was heavily played. Against the second horse, Dandelion, there was 6 to 1 for the place, while Oxford was not seriously considered at 30, 10 and 5. Israfel was always held at 5 to 1, while the now twice dethroned idol, Roseben, went back a point in the betting, from 3 to 1 to 7 to 2.

The big field managed to get away from the barrier in quite a compact bunch, except Ormonde's Right, who was left, and only the horses which finished in the first five places were prominent in the running. Roseben's defeat was accepted philosophically by the crowd, which was the largest of the racing season, despite the cold and threatening weather.

Roseben carried 129 pounds, the top weight, but despite this heavy impost he whirled away in front at a dizzy pace and it was due to his early efforts that such good time was made over the dead track and in the going. The big gelding maintained his lead to the stretch, but Dandelion, Oxford, Israfel and Grapple were always within striking distance. In the run home Grapple closed with a great rush and won handily under Garner's good ride. O'Neil pushed Dandelion into second place, while Hildebrand performed the unexpected feat of landing the gray horse Oxford inside the money. Miller was on Israfel and Lyne as usual was in Roseben's saddle.

The Metropolitan was worth nearly $14,000 this year, of which the second horse received $2000 and the third $1000.

First race, six furlongs, main course—Cressina won; Old Faithful second; Lone Hand, third. Time, 1:15.

Second race, four and a half furlongs, straight—Sally Preston won; Clare Russel second, Sir Tiddington third. Time, 0.55.

Third race, the Metropolitan handicap, one mile—Grapple, 106 (Garner), 8 to 1, won; Dandelion, 108 (O'Neil), 15 to 1, second; Oxford, 107 (Hildebrand), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:39. Israfel, Roseben, Stalwart, Rapid Water, Lord of the Vale, Blandy, Colonial Girl, Ivan the Terrible, Red Knight, Pegasus, Goldsmith, Accountant, Batts, Cederstrome, The Clown, Guiding Star, First Premium and Tokalon also ran. Ormonde's Right was left at the post.

Fourth race, the New York steeplechase, about two miles—Hylas won, Ben Crockett second, Gold Fleur third. Time, 4 23

Fifth race, seven furlongs—Realm won, Mandarin second, Adonis third. Time, 1 28 3-5.

Sixth race, selling, seven furlongs—Ginette won, Rye second, Jack McKeon third. Time, 1:26 2-5.

JUD SMITH WILL REPORT

PORTLAND, May 11.—About the best news that McCredie brought home with him is the statement that Jud Smith has agreed to report for duty May 12. Assistant Manager Higgins said he had a long talk with Smith while in California and the dentist agreed to play ball. If he comes that will help the Portland boys wonderfully. Bert Jones, the southpaw pitcher, who has always been known as "Hard Luck" Bert, is still true to his name. He was unable to get his arm in shape and was released in Los Angeles. It is also reported that Win French is slated for removal.

As regards the future plans of the baseball magnates, we are more in the dark in Portland than anywhere else. McCredie is determined to stick to the Coast League so long as San Francisco and Oakland wish to live up to the agreement. He says the request for a change should come from the men who stand to lose the most. If the new Northwest League is formed, the split will have to come about through Morley and Seattle. If Morley refuses to continue and Seattle draws out of the league, it looks as if Portland will be obliged to follow suit.

HARVARD MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

NEW YORK, May 11.—A special to the Herald from Boston says: Because of despondency, Malcolm McLeod, a Harvard Institute graduate and football player committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the heart with a revolver. He ended his life at his mother's home in the Back Bay district. Two years ago he played on his class eleven at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and last year on the Harvard second eleven. He was 22 years old, popular, and was looked upon as a good candidate for the 'varsity team.

CURE BEATS SCHAEFFER.

Louis Cure won the afternoon game from Jacob Schaefer by a sensational run of 110, which carried him to the necessary 500 mark. When Cure started on the run which won him the game, Schaefer needed but 37 points. The game was remarkable in that three runs of more than 100 were made. Cure counted 112 billiards in his first inning. Beside his runs of 112 and 110, Cure counted 79 billiards in his sixteenth inning. Schaefer's high run was made in the eleventh inning, when he collected 107 points by beautiful close play.

SIWASHES AT LAST WIN GAME

SEATTLE, May 11.—Seattle finally won a game, defeating Oakland, 6 to 5, in a cracking good battle. Oakland came strong at the finish and made Seattle work hard to maintain the lead. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Seattle	6	9	1
Oakland	5	14	3

Batteries—Vickery and Blankenship; Reidy and Bliss. Umpire, Knell.

HENLEY EASY.

PORLAND, Or., May 11.—McCredie and his men batted Henley all over the field yesterday and the home team had no trouble in winning. Mitchell secured two singles, a double and a home run out of five times at bat, and Donohue and McLean each secured two doubles. Califf eased up in the ninth and San Francisco scored four times. Sensational catches by McCredie and Mitchell were the fielding features. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
San Francisco	6	9	2
Portland	11	17	5

Batteries—Henley, Hildebrand and Wilson; Califf and McLean. Umpire, Perrine.

LOS ANGELES, May 11.—The locals defeated Fresno again yesterday by the close score of 7 to 6. Both Lemke and Bergeman were batted hard, and the former's wildness helped the home team to win. He gave seven bases on balls. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Los Angeles	7	10	2
Fresno	6	13	2

Batteries—Bergeman and Eager; Lemke and Hogan. Umpire, McDonald.

HOPPE LOOKS LIKE VICTOR

CHICAGO, May 11.—Unless he shows a decided reversal of form, Willie Hoppe, the boy billiardist, will win first prize in the professional tournament being played at Orchestra Hal. The four other contestants in the tournament have all suffered defeats, while Hoppe has won both games in which he has participated.

George Sutton of Canada and Jacob Schaefer of Chicago are tied for second place, both having won one and lost one game each. George Slosson, winner of the world's championship in the recent tournament in New York, is tied with Louis Cure for fourth place.

Slosson holds the high run for the tournament so far—142, made in his game last night with Sutton. Despite this big run Slosson lost the game, having scored but 423 points when Sutton ran his 500 points. Sutton's high run was 79; average 19 6-26. Slosson's high run was 142; average 16 7-26.

BALL GAMES IN THE EAST

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—A bunch of three-base hits early clinched the game for Chicago, the final score being 8 to 5. A feature was Tinker's steal of home in the second inning. Umpire Carpenter called the police in the first inning to put Grady of St. Louis out of the grounds. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	5	10	3
Chicago	8	12	2

Batteries—Puttman, McFarland and Raub; Beebe and Moran. Umpires—Carpenter and Johnstone.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—Lush and Young pitched extraordinary ball for Philadelphia and Boston respectively yesterday, and the result was an interesting contest of eleven innings. Doolin scored the winning run. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Boston	1	6	0
Philadelphia	2	6	2

Batteries—Young and Needham; Lush and Doolin. Umpire—Conway.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 11.—Cleveland won easily from Chicago, driving Walsh from the box in three innings and hitting Smith all over the field in the sixth. Bernhard was a puzzle. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	15	17	0
Chicago	1	7	2

Batteries—Bernhard and Clark; Walsh, Smith and Sullivan.

BOSTON, May 11.—Philadelphia won the fourth successive victory over the home team yesterday. A home run by Collins saved the locals from a shut-out. The weather was too cold for high-class baseball. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	5	9	0
Boston	1	10	2

Batteries—Bandor and Schreckengost; Harris and Peterson.

MAY CHANGE YACHT RACE

HONOLULU, May 11.—Commodore H. M. Cooper, of the Hawaii Yacht Club, sailed on the steamship Alameda for San Francisco for the purpose of rearranging the date for the Trans-Pacific yacht race. It is expected here that the race will start this month.

PROMINENT AT U. C.

BERKELEY, May 11.—No little distress has been caused here by the drowning of Z. Edgar E. Chapman, a member of the junior class at the University and Miss Mildred McKay, a sophomore student, who lost their lives in the San Lorenzo River near Santa Cruz.

The two unfortunate undergraduates had taken a fishing trip on the San Lorenzo river below the Big Trees resort. Chapman had been visiting the McKay family at Seabright, a summer resort near Santa Cruz. It is thought that the double drowning was the result of the accidental overturning of the boat. The girl's body, the face gashed with cuts caused by the sharp-edged rocks, was found on the beach. Young Chapman's body was not recovered.

Chapman was a prominent member of the junior class at the University, being a member of the staff of the Blue and Gold and class yell leader.

The young man's father is E. C. F. Chapman, a business man of Hayley, Australia. Miss McKay is registered at the University from Santa Cruz. The two, while in Berkeley, boarded at 2228 Chapel street.

THE QUICK OR THE DEAD.

Two congressmen were talking about the late Jerry Simpson.

"He was a level-headed man," said the first. "He was a foe of fads. He had a shrewd humor.

"He and I and a clergyman one day lunched together. The clergyman was a faddist of a marked type. He carried a pocket microscope, wore health underwear and so on and so forth.

"This clergyman wouldn't drink any water with his lunch.

"'I wouldn't care to do so,' he said solemnly. 'It is so full, you know, of animalculae. I never drink water unless it has been boiled.'

"Congressman Simpson enaptied his glass and looked at the clergyman with a quizzical smile.

"'I drink my water raw,' he said. 'I'd rather be an aquarium than a graveyard.'"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"HOUSE PARTIES" FOR HARVARD MEN.

Harvard men left in Cambridge during the Easter vacation are "living next to nature." That is to say, most of those who live too far away to go home in the short recess are making up "house parties" for themselves and going away to spend the time in the country.

This is now an established custom at Harvard. Small knots of men are located everywhere up and down the north and south shore, where available cottages have been hired for seven days. Cape Cod is the most popular Mecca, and is crowded with young sons of John Harvard. A number more are going down for the week end. Students in the law school cannot join in these relaxations, as this is "exam" time, the hardest period of the year.—Chicago Evening Post.

ALWAYS TAKE MOTHER'S ADVICE

Mother's Medicine Chest.

When we look back to childhood and think of what mother advised, we feel pretty certain that she advised what was right from her own experience. She inherited later in her life of motherhood a knowledge of children's ailments and a certain class of remedies that she knew well and their effects. This experience after all is the best teacher. Most mothers know as well as doctors, and often better, what ails a young girl on the threshold of young womanhood and what she needs. For nearly forty years many mothers have recommended to ailing girls a prescription made from well-known native medicinal plants, Lady's Slipper root, Golden Seal root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and chemically pure glycerine make one of the best prescriptions for the period-ical troubles and afflictions which visit womankind at some time or another. Prof. F. Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, says of Lady's Slipper root: "It exercises special influence upon nervous conditions, depending upon disorders of the feminine organs—relieves pain, restlessness and nervousness." Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., says of the same root, "It is valuable in all cases of nervous irritability or irritability." Of Golden Seal root, Edwin M. Hale, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica at Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, says: "In its general effects on the system there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is unquestionably regarded as a tonic useful in all debilitated states." Prof. F. Ellingwood, M. D., author of "A Treatise on Materia Medica and Therapeutics," says of Golden Seal root: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the stomach." Of Black Cohosh root, Prof. John M. King, M. D., author of "Women and Her Diseases," says: "Upon the reproductive organs it exerts a specific influence, promoting regularity. In dysmenorrhoea (painful periods), it is surpassed by no other drug, being of the greatest utility in irritative and congestive conditions, for dragging pains resembling the pains of rheumatism and of sciatica." Of Unicorn root the AMERICAN DISPENSATORY says: "It is one of our most valuable agents, acting as a uterine tonic, and gradually removing abnormal conditions, while at the same time it imparts tone and vigor to the reproductive organs, hence it is much used in leucorrhoea, amenorrhoea (suppressed periods), dysmenorrhoea (painful

Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent."

He continues: "Helonias (Unicorn root)—through its tonic and alterative influence—acts equally well in amenorrhoea (suppressed menstruation) and in menorrhagia (flooding or profuse menstruation). It is especially called for in cases of amenorrhoea which are accompanied by general debility and an atonic (weak) condition of the digestive organs, as it increases the appetite and promotes digestion and assimilation. When there is atony (weakness) of the generative organs and a tendency to miscarriage its tonic influence upon the sexual system will aid much in bringing about a normal condition of the structures involved. In sterility and impotence its curative power is unmistakable, and within a reasonable time it will restore to healthful activity all cases not dependent upon organic wrongs, and in leucorrhoea and defective menstruation it is a frequently needed remedy."

The following are among the leading indications for Helonias: "Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppressed menstruation), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and an anaemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, an invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading and predominating ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, associated with other equally efficient medicinal extracts of native roots.

From the above extracts it will be understood why Doctor Pierce is so successful in curing diseases peculiar to women with a carefully prepared glyceric extract of the above mentioned roots in just the right proportions—this compound being called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. As a solvent and preservative, glycerine is superior to alcohol and is entirely unobjectionable. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for the cure of women's peculiar ailments that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. It is also the only non-secret medicine for women sold by druggists. Its ingredients are printed in full on the bottle wrapper and in plain English.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

A good medical book, written in plain English, and free from technical terms is a valuable work for frequent consultation. Such a work is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It's a book of 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. It is given away now, although formerly sold in cloth binding for $1.50. Send 21 cents, in one-cent stamps, to pay for cost of mailing only for paper-covered copy, addressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.; or 31 cents for an elegantly cloth-bound copy.

WOMAN FOUND NOT GUILTY

LONDON, May 11.—Mrs Violet Tewksbury, who was extradited from Paris March 30 charged with passing fraudulent checks at the instigation of her husband, Lewis Green Tewksbury, of New York, was acquitted in the Sessions Court today after a two days' trial.

"Thank God!" she exclaimed as the foreman of the jury announced that she was not guilty.

Mrs Tewksbury was immediately handed over to friends, who hurried her off to rejoin her baby, born shortly before her arrest in Paris.

TAFT REFUSES THE RESPONSIBILITY.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Secretary Taft has refused to assume the responsibility for an order requiring the canal commission to buy only American goods, and as a result of his stand it is likely resolutions will be introduced in Congress limiting the purchases of the commission to American markets.

Senators Dick and Ankeny and a number of other prominent Republicans in the Senate have urged the commission to abandon the idea of buying in the open market, but Secretary Taft and the members of the commission have not felt that they could read any such restriction on purchases into the present law regulating the commission and suggested that Congress should specifically limit buying to American goods if any such provision is desired for the protection of the interests of the United States corporations.

"In your fortieth year," said the palmist, "you will encounter a great peril."

"Guess not," said the man who was consulting her. "I'm already 56."

"Well," she rejoined, not in the least disconcerted, "all I have to say to that is that the lines in your hand contradict those of your face."

Whereupon he gave her double the usual fee and went out, highly pleased with himself.

APPEALS TO CZAR

ST. PETERSBURG, May 11, 3:35 p. m.—Professor Mouromtzeff went to Peterhof this afternoon to notify the Emperor of his election to the presidency of the lower house of Parliament. It is known that he expects to speak plainly to His Majesty on the views of the country, and the Constitutional Democrats hope that much will result from the audience.

Besides demanding amnesty, Professor Mouromtzeff will present in behalf of the Constitutional Democrats a majority suggestion that the council of the Empire be made a purely consultative body, with no right to stand between the representatives of the people and the sovereign.

OLD RESIDENTS DEAD.

Thomas Donnellan, who has been a resident of Oakland for forty years, died last night at his home, 1053 West street, aged 63 years. He leaves a wife and three children.

After a man marries he soon gets rid of the idea that he is the whole show.

HELD ON SUSPICION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 11.—A man who insists that he is B. F. Carr, a circus performer, is under arrest here on suspicion of being Erich Muenter, the Harvard Professor wanted in connection with his wife's recent death.

Carr wrote the following telegram to Edward Weiss, 215 Fifth avenue, Chicago:

"I am held here as the Muenter murderer. Please set the officials right."

CHICAGO, May 11.—Edward Weiss, of 215 Fifth avenue, to whom Carr is said to have sent a message, is assistant superintendent of the Pinkerton Detective Agency.

He said today that he had received no message from Carr, and did not know anything about him.

Haggin Divides Honors With Mrs. Astor.

James B. Haggin will from now on share with Mrs. Astor the rare distinction of having lived to see his descendants in the third generation. His granddaughter, Mrs. Lewis Butler Preston, who was formerly Miss Mabel McAfee, has just given birth to a son. Mrs. Preston has a step-grandmother, who is but a little older than herself and with whom she is on terms of particular intimacy. Mrs. James B. Haggin, known to her friends and relatives as "Pearl," will from henceforth be a step-grandmother.—From the New York American.

MORALS OF GIRLS

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—"The Delinquent Girl" was discussed today at the opening session of the Charities and Corrections convention. The subject was presented by Miss Vida H. Francis, of this city, who said, in part:

"The radical difference in proportion between boy and girl delinquents and in the nature of crime committed by each will serve to illustrate the point which I most desire to emphasize—that the problem of the one is not the problem of the other.

The recent wonderful strides of biological psychology make it seem incredible that our juvenile courts are still applying the same methods of reform to boys and girls.

"The judge of a juvenile court has three courses open to him:

"1—To send the girl back to her same environments under the care of a probationer.

"2—To place her in a good home through the probationer or some child-placing agency.

"3—To send her to a training school.

"A girl morally tainted should obviously not be returned to the scene of her infection, and only in cases of trivial misdemeanor or in the exceptional case of a good moral home can a girl be safely so returned. For her misdemeanor has proven that the home is unable to exert proper influence or power.

"In placing girls uninfected by the social evil, but of criminal tendencies and guilty of trivial misdemeanors, the danger is that they will not receive an adequate special training. The place for the normal child is in the normal home, but every delinquent needs a special additional care, and a heavy responsibility rests on judges to examine the reputation of the families to which the delinquents are placed and on probationers to see that they live up to their reputations and responsibilities.

"No words can be strong enough to urge judges not to send girls who are actually morally tainted into homes. If it is a crime against the home and community to harbor a person afflicted with smallpox, is it not a greater crime to keep in the home a person capable of infecting others with a moral evil more hideous than physical disease? And it is not only crime against others, but against the girl whom we are claiming to help."

RAID MADE ON REFUGEES

BERKELEY, May 11.—Two Frenchmen, Downey Amedee and V. F. Jallu, refugees from San Francisco, were discovered this morning with a large supply of groceries which they had obtained from the various relief committees of the city. Police Detective Jamison made the raid on the house and was astounded at the large supply of food in the rear of 2236 Roosevelt steet. The groceries taken would stock a good-sized grocery store.

As a defense the refugees set up the claim that they had rightly obtained the goods from the relief committee, and that they had merely laid away a stock for a "rainy day." Jamison had the stuff carted back to the Y. M. C. A. headquarters after severely reprimanding the two men.

Before they were burned out Amedee lived at 19 Polk and 417 Bush street, while Jallu resided at 1527 Mission street.

THE PASSING OF THE "OUGH."

When we spell as reformers would have us,
That "o-u-g-h" will be cut out
With all of the trouble it's causing.
When reason in rhyme is about,
Both polite men and trees will have "bows" then.
At which no sane person should scoff,
And people with colds will just have not
A "c-o-u-g-h," but "coff."

The "t-r-o-u-g-h" pig plate
As "trauf" will the farmer buy so;
And the cook in her kitchen, her duty
Will "du" when she makes up the "do."
The "l-o-u-g-h's" beauty
The poet will with his mind stock;
But when no has written his poem,
He'll tell of the lass of the "lock."

The winds through the trees will no longer
With low, wailing moanings just sough,
Unless one is uncertain of rhyming,
And leaves its weight on every brow,
Oh, the "o-u-g-h" spell is passing;
Reform gives it quite a hard cuff,
So we'll leave the whole subject, remarking,
Enough of this rough and tough stuff.

A SMALL ANGLER'S ADVENTURE.

Thomas Ryan, 12, of 148 Amsterdam avenue sat on the bank of the upper lake in Central Park Monday afternoon watching some gold fish swimming around. Tommy cautiously took from his pocket a piece of string and a bent pin, which he attached to a stick.

With a bit of cake the boy baited the hook and dropped it into the water. But the fish wouldn't bite. While Tommy waited patiently for a bite he went to sleep and fell in among the gold fishes. When he awoke a young man in frock coat and top hat was on the bank of the lake fishing him out with a big cane with a crooked handle. The boy was shivering with cold, and the young man, who said he was Louis Durrand, took the youngster to the home of M. F. Palmer, the millionaire iron manufacturer, at 922 Fifth avenue. They dried the young angler's clothes and sent him home.—New York World.

REFUGEE HAS MANY VICTIMS

BERKELEY, May 11.—Egbert Mainard, a refugee from San Francisco, will have a busy time dodging the local police. Mainard was intrusted with the care of a typewriter in San Francisco just as he was leaving the burning city, but he took advantage of the helplessness of its owner and sold the machine for $50. Then he hied to Berkeley to seek a new location. On the way he fell in with a party of Chinese. Quong Toy, their leader, explained that he wanted a house in Berkeley for one hundred or so of his countrymen. Mainard said he would make a deal with them.

Arriving in Berkeley, he went to I. J. Truman, the owner of a vacant house at 1918 University avenue, and engaged the house, paying a deposit of $25. Quong Toy, the unsuspecting celestial, was very willing to take the residence from Mainard for $100. The deal closed and Mainard made his departure with the money and left the hundred Orientals in the hands of Truman, the owner of the house. Truman is looking for Mainard and wondering what he can do to the deceived Chinese.

CHINA HONORS MISS BLATCH.

Ithaca, N. Y.—The Cornell Alumni News announces that Miss Nora Stanton Blatch, granddaughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and the first woman to win the degree of civil engineering at Cornell University, has received an offer from the Chinese government to become a member of the corps of engineers which that government is assembling to develop and open up the interior railroads of the country.

Miss Blatch recently was elected to membership in the American Society of Civil Engineers, being the first woman in the United States who has received this honor.—New York Times.

A LIMITED SNAKE STORY.

"Yes," said the Georgia man, who was telling the big snake story, "I killed seventeen big rattlers at one swipe, an' I would 'a' killed fifty of 'em ef it hadn't been fer a accident."

"And what was the accident?"

"Well, I had only drinked two quarts o' corn licker, an' thar wuz nigh onto half a gallon in the jug, an' when I turned roun' to tackle it again, I found that some miserable scoundrel had sneaked my jug, an' wuz killin' snakes on his own hook!"—Atlanta Constitution.

THE AUTO AND THE RAILROAD.

On the contrary, the auto is the best drummer the railroads have ever had. It cultivates the instinct of travel upon which the railroads largely depend. It supplies them with a new kind of highly profitable freight. Last year, for example, about 7000 freights were needed to transport automobiles from factory to garage. And so far as hurting the horse market is concerned, here is the fact, however it can be explained: twelve years ago, the average price of horses was $65; today it is $103. Knowing this, what horse can feel resentful of its tooting competitor!—From Pearson's Magazine.

Any man who plays only favorites never wins by a long shot.

The Cannon Presidential Boom.

The admirers of Speaker Cannon have taken advantage of the celebration of his seventieth birthday to present him to the country as a Presidential candidate.

No Speaker of the House of Representatives has ever reached the Presidential chair. Clay and Blaine and Reed each strove for many years for the Presidential prize, but each died disappointed and embittered. Mr. Cannon is not so able nor so popular as either of his three great predecessors. He possesses no commanding quality of statesmanship. He possesses many admirable qualities, but he is a narrow partisan—a machine politician of the regulation type.

He is honest, courageous, patriotic and possesses abilities of a virile, aggressive sort, but after all is said and done his stature is not large nor his view one of breadth. During his thirty-four years service in the lower house of Congress he has stood resolutely against extravagance, jobs and graft, but he belongs precisely to the school of politics which lends itself readiest to extravagance, jobbing and grafting. His own rugged personal virtues are too inseparably bound up with a hidebound illiberal party spirit to be of the broad national service they would otherwise be.

An able man within his limitations, a good man according to his lights, and a strong man always, Mr. Cannon hardly measures up to the standard of the Presidency in these days. He is of the frontier type and a politician of a departed school.

Moreover, he is seventy years old—the time or life, when, as Mark Tv ain said, a man should sit in the corner and smoke his pipe in peace—and would be nearly seventy-three when inaugurated, if elected in 1908. Not only has Mr. Cannon grown old, but the country has outgrown him and the ideas and methods of men like him. They have had their day, served their time and turn, and must give way to larger conceptions of national life and a broader understanding of the functions of parties.

Mr. Cannon is the finished product of the Jefferson Brick school of statesmanship. He cannot divorce himself from the inverted idea that power is to be wielded to serve the party and not the country. It is the chief fault of men of his temperament and training that while they sincerely wish their party to be honest, patriotic and progressive, they are for the party anyhow, no mattter how gross its practices or false to its ideals.

Yet Uncle Joe Cannon is an extremely likeable man—a useful man. His heart is as young as a boy's, and it is full of kindness and love for his country and his kind. In all his public life he has never been mean or unclean. If he has at times been unfair to political opponents, he has still oftener been generous to them. If he is strenuously partisan, he is frank in acknowledging it and manly in accepting responsibility for what he does.

In ot words, he is better than his code. The American people do not regard Mr. Cannon as a great man, but they would never be ashamed of him nor doubt his intention to do right.

Still, we do not believe Mr. Cannon will be a formidable candidate for the Presidency in 1908. His age, his long service in the popular branch of the national legislature, his methods as Speaker, his parochial ideas of external policy and his undeviating partisanship all negative the idea that the Republican party will take him up after Roosevelt. Unquestioning and unquestioned loyalty to party policies, platforms and candidates has never been rewarded by the Republican party with its capital prizes. A more politic, polished, and less outspoken man, with fewer personal antagonisms and less pronounced views, is likely to be chosen. The party hack goes to the boneyard, but never to the White House.

Let us be fair to the people of Los Angeles. They cannot be charged with injustice in laying stress on the fact that their city suffered no damage from the recent seismic disturbance provided they do not exaggerate the temblor effects elsewhere. A few persons in Los Angeles have been unkind—in some instances brutal—to San Francisco, but the vast majority have been exceedingly generous and neighborly. It is only decent that this should be acknowledged with frank gratitude. Moreover, there is no getting away from the fact that we had quite a shake-up here while Los Angeles had none to speak of. If we insist that there shall be no exaggeration on the part of others, there should be no concealments on our own part. We cannot expect the plain truth from others and deny it ourselves. Nor should we depreciate what Los Angeles has done for San Francisco because a few of her inhabitants have shown themselves to be heartless and ungenerous. There are heartless and ungenerous persons in every community, and they belong to no class or condition solely any more than they dwell exclusively in any locality. All we have a right to expect of the Angelenos is that they will stay within the confines of the truth in speaking of recent happenings up this way, and generally speaking this expectation is being answered. There are exceptions, of course, but there are always exceptions, and in this instance, as in all others, they prove the rule.

The Fresno Republican makes a rather extended defense of Congressman Needham, who was recently attacked by the Louisville Courier-Journal. To our mind the defense, though spirited and well meant, was entirely unnecessary. The worst the Courier-Journal could say of Mr. Needham was to call him "a hidebound protectionist." Its editor is one of the most ardent free traders in the United States. Mr. Needham is a protectionist and is proud of it. He has been elected to Congress as a protectionist several times in a district normally Democratic, which is evidence that his constituents are acquainted with his views and fully endorse them. Nothing the Courier-Journal can say can harm Mr. Needham, therefore it is superfluous to defend him from its attacks.

No Phony Politics This Time.

It is told of Senator Stewart of Nevada that he was once present at an unconventional funeral, the party of the first part having no religious, family or social ties to provoke any demonstration at his interment. When the coffin was about to be lowered into the grave, the undertaker, punctilious in the matter of custom, stated that if anyone desired to offer a prayer or say a few words fitting for the occasion, he might do so.

There was no response to this courteous invitation. Finally Senator Stewart said, "If no one else desires to speak, and there is no objection, I will now proceed to make a few remarks on the silver question."

The story may be apocryphal, but it illustrates an idiosyncrasy. The Stockton Mail is a perpetual reminder of this story and its application. The Mail does politics from soup to nuts, from prayer meeting to corn-shucking, from the smokehouse to the henhouse. At all times and in all places it desires to make a few remarks advocating Jeffersonian principles. It now proposes that the call for an extra session of the Legislature shall include a proposition to amend the Constitution so as to invest the Railroad Commission with larger powers in dealing with rates and discriminations. At the close of a long article, prompted by Commissioner Garfield's report on the Standard Oil Company, the Mail says:

"Governor Pardee has in mind the calling of a special session of the Legislature to consider the needs of the sufferers in San Francisco. If the Railroad Commission were alive it would be already considering the advisability of asking the Governor to include in his call the amending of the law, if such amendment is necessary, so as to stop the evil practices brought to light in Mr. Garfield's report.

"Will the Railroad Commission do anything about all this?

"KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN AND SEE."

We venture to remind our Stockton contemporary that this is no friendless funeral. When the Legislature assembles it will have some immediate business to attend to that has no connection with politics or rate regulation. It will be attended to all the better and all the quicker if no railway rate problems, Owens river water schemes or projects of municipal consolidation are obtruded to provoke discord and delay action. The Mail may follow Senator Stewart's example and say what it pleases at inappropriate times and places, but no political buncombe will be permitted in the special session which the Governor will call to provide relief for San Francisco. That is, if the Governor is the level-headed man we believe him to be.

DO SOMETHING FOR OAKLAND.

Edior TRIBUNE: That the awful calamity which visited San Francisco is the most terrible, heartrending and sudden of any experienced by the modern world is a fact, and that it calls for the heartfelt aid and sympathy of those unafflictetd is also true, and I think I state the facts when I say that Oakland has responded in personal sympathy and aid to the afflicted as best she could.

But there is a time for mourning to cease and business to begin, and for the Oakland papers to cease mourning over the fate of San Francisco, and very modestly, perhaps, say to the world that Oakland is on the map, speak up and urge the city officers to put all the waterfront holdings she may have into shape for use, and to urge all others to do the same, and to take the proper steps to commence the forward movement which is upon us—awaken to the situation, and realize that this city is and will be from now on the principal commercial city of the Pacific Coast.

There is no use in shutting one's eyes to this fact, as the force of events is pushing it forward, and the opposition of any combination of men cannot prevent its consummation. It is idle to reckon on San Francisco, as she is but a dream. There is no San Francisco today (and I say this with all due respect to any of her late residents). Go there today and cast your eyes over the miles of sickly ruins in any direction and see if you can associate commercial life with the sad and heartrending view. She is to be left out of the reckoning for many years to come, and for us to have due sympathy for her it is not demanded that we should cast ourselves alive into her open grave.

Let us make use of the opportunities cast at our feet. We are on the continent, San Francisco is on the peninula. It is known by every one today that the reason the Argonauts camped on that side was because of the flats on our side. They could not get to our land because of shallow water; now all this is changed.

Here we have the best foundation in the world for building purposes. The ground around the noble postoffice building in San Francisco is broken and sunken and the building cracked and shattered because the foundation was never substantial; it was filled ground. It is all right for everybody, to sing rebuild San Francisco, but stop and think what that means—the years and years that it will take, and in the meantime do you propose for Oakland to sit supinely and wait, or go backwards till San Francisco catches up? It would seem so by the talk.

Let it be remembered that when San Francisco was building there were no ferries or ways of getting anywhere from there, and all the people who did business there had to dwell on the peninsula, and hence the city grew. But now all that is changed, people are never going to rebuild their homes on the peninsular, but will build on the continent, and San Francisco will not have the causes to grow fast that she had in olden times. I desire to be recorded here as saying that San Francisco will never again see the day that she will be equal in population to Oakland, and my reasons are, that here is the logical place for the metropolis, here car and ship meet; all nature conspires to make this the place for the city.

Whereto serves the millions of money that the United States Government has expended to bring deep water to our front if not to serve the needs of a great city.

When the merchant that has come from San Francisco and has established here (temporarily, they say) gets the tide of his busines flowing this way, and all goes well and he finds himself doing better and easier business than he did before the move, why, I ask you, should he move back; there is no cause for him to move back but sentiment, and there is no sentiment in business, and there are many reasons why he should not move back, and permit me to say that he never will move back.

We have all this increase, as it were, thrust upon us—are we not equal to appropriate it, and make proper accommodations for it? We must bestir ourselves, recognize the situation. It has often been said that nothing but an earthquake would put life into Oakland. Well, now we have the earthquake and let us show the world that we are alive. Let us not keep harping upon the misfortune of San Francisco, but speak a word for Oakland, invite business men to come here and cast their lots with us. There is plenty of room to expand here without being crowded into the sea. Urge upon those who hold the desirable positions to appropriate them to the uses to which they are adapted, build wharves and make a place for the business which is sure to come, and all the influence within the power of man cannot prevent it coming if we are willing to receive it. I have been waiting here forty-six years to see a city, and I think my patience will be rewarded by the establishment of the metropolis of the Pacific here in my beloved Oakland.

C. R. LEWIS,

GREAT EXECUTIVE ABILITY OF GOVERNOR PARDEE.

As one of the leaders in providing ways and means for caring for the suffering thousands as a result of the destructive catastrophe which fell to the lot of San Francisco on April 18, Governor Pardee has exhibited executive ability in a marked degree. This attribute of character on the part of the chief executive, however, is no surprise to those who know the man best, for it was known that he possessed the necessary qualifications and energy to cope with great undertakings, having that deliberation, wisdom and fixed determination which accomplishes things effectually and with justice. It is these qualifications that enabled him to conduct the affairs of State, since his advent into the executive chair, so successfully.

The people of the State of California owe it not only to him but to themselves to see to it that George C. Pardee shall be the man to succeed himself as Governor of the State. While there has all along been abundant reason for his re-election, still this fact has certainly been more thoroughly impressed upon the minds of observing people during the past few weeks.—Solano Republican.

"I don't allus take off my hat to a man jes' cause he's popular," said Uncle Eben. "One o' de mos' popular people dat ever come to Foggy Bottom turned out to be a confidence man."—Washington Star.

why are Kahn Bros. doing the business of Oakland ????

May 12th, 1906.

Do people crowd a store because they like its decorations?

Do they spend their money with a merchant because they like the way his windows look or because they like to read his advertisements?

No, siree.

Maybe they go in stores sometimes out of curiosity, but the steady, ever increasing, come back again business of the Kahn store never came from anything but the solid rock bottom foundation "good merchandise."

As the suit buyer says, "It's the goods and the prices that count." And right here is where the leadership of the Kahn store starts.

It is true that we want and try to make every customer a life long business friend. We work towards this end by all the means of up-to-date merchandising, by prompt delivery, quick, intelligent attention, practical suggestion and complete assortments systematically arranged. But these are but supplementary to the main business drawing feature of the establishment, viz.: "The goods and the prices."

Because we sell a better suit for $15, in better styles, better made, of better materials than you can get anywhere else is one reason why people DO trade here.

Because we give the intelligent service of a well trained force, in a well appointed store is a reason why people LIKE to trade here, but preferences and actions are not always identical.

So remember that Kahn's is "Oakland's busiest store," for the very good reason that they sell better goods, in better styles and for less money than you are asked to pay anywhere else.

Kahn's are building a business upon a foundation that can not possibly be undermined.

OUGH.

The ploughboy whistled behind his plough,
For his lungs were sound and he had no cough,
He guided his team with a pliant bough,
And watered it well in a wayside trough.
The toil was hard for the land was rough—
It lay on the side of an Irish lough—
But his well-fed team was stout and tough,
And he plied his bough to flank and hough.
He toiled all day, and the crow and chough
Flew round his head, though he oft cried "Shough!"
But his plough at eve struck a hidden slough,
With a force that sent the share clean through;
The frightened team ran off with the plough,
With the speed of the wind from the plowboy, though
He shouted "Whoa!" and into the slough
It plunged where the mud was soft as dough.
The plowboy wept—for the wreck was thorough—
He fled that night from the farm to the burrough.

PRAISE FOR THE RAILROADS.

Could the sum total of the nation's generosity to the needy in San Francisco be ascertained it would be found that the largest contributions had been made, not by the United States government, not by the great metropolis of the Empire State, with its hundreds of millionaires but by the railroad companies, objects of many unjust attacks as well of some complaints that are well founded.

Trainload after trainload of supplies and provisions were hauled without charge and all schedules were adjusted so as to speed the relief stores to their destination. The value in dollars and cents of this service reaches into the millions, whether estimated in rate schedule figures or at actual cost to the railroad companies. It is said that the Harriman roads alone are rendering a service that is worth $75,000 a day and that the aggregate sum of their contributions is over two millions. Other roads will, perhaps, bring the total to four millions.

Of course, these gifts are not as spectacular as the drafting of a $100,000 check, which may be reproduced in a newspaper, but they are in every way worthy of respectful attention. They show that the railroads are not quite so black as they are painted.—Baltimore American.

TO COOK INDOORS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The committee on lighting and electricity has received information from the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company which gives assurance that fully one-half of the residents of the unburned district will be able to cook their meals indoors within the next few days. A thorough inspection of all gas pipes and connections was started today.

The groom is the purser of the Nippon Maru, of the Japanese trans-Pacific line. This steamer sailed yesterday morning, and the bride and groom were passengers, taking their honeymoon in a voyage across the Pacific.

The groom had not been a resident of Alameda, but is well known in shipping circles. Mrs. Fink has been a resident of Alameda fifteen years. She has a daughter, who a short time ago went to Seattle on a visit, and a son.

TRAIN SERVICE TO BE RESUMED.

ALAMEDA, May 11.—Alamedans are delighted to hear that the narrow guage service is to be resumed next Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. This announcement was made by E E. Calvin.

The Alameda service was discontinued primarily on account of broken pipes that impaired the company's water supply, but the continued suspension of operations was due to the fact that the ferry boats were required in the government service. Additional boats had to be put on the creek route and handle government supplies, and there was a great demand for every boat that could be spared from the passenger service.

The railroad company now finds itself ready to restore the old service, and it is announced that the schedule of trains and boats that was in effect prior to April 18 will be put in operation beginning Sunday.

UNEEDA BISCUIT TO HAVE A HOME HERE

Permanent Agency About to be Established in This City to Supply Local Dealers With Products of National Biscuit Company, Under Management of Mr. W. K. Greene.

It seems funny, doesn't it? By reason of the very fact that Uneeda Biscuit has been adopted into practically every home in the city, it now becomes necessary to establish it in a local home of its own. That is just the reason the National Biscuit Company is establishing an agency in this city. The demand for Uneeda Biscuit and its kindred products of the baker's art has increased to such an extent that it is no longer feasible to supply it in the usual way by direct shipment to the local dealers. Instead, an agency will be established in this city on San Pablo avenue opposite Thirty-seventh street, under the management of Mr Greene

There is a logical reason for the popularity of Uneeda Biscuit It is introduction really marked a food epoch.

Until within a few years the purchaser of crackers or biscuit had no choice but to buy from an open box or barrel If they chanced to be clean when they left the barrel, they were more or less broken by the time they had been carried home in a paper bag. They were stale or more so, depending on whether the barrel had been open one day or many

Such was the condition of affairs which the National Biscuit Company determined to overcome, and did overcome in the production of Uneeda Biscuit—made of the best material the world affords, by methods of baking that have been brought to an exact science. Uneeda Biscuit is today the superlative of the soda cracker, and the staff of life in a million homes.

Quickly following Uneeda Biscuit came other delicious products of the baker's art, perfected in the same bakeries, and proteced in the same packages Among these are the Oysterettes, Butter thin Biscuit, Graham Crackers, Social Tea Biscuit, Zu Zu Ginger Snaps and others All have their crisp deliciousness and purity assured to the consumer by the trademarks of the National Biscuit Company on each end of the package.

The new agency will be a convenience and advantage to dealer and consumer alike, and under the able management of Mr Greene will become a feature of the commercial landscape.

This company donated $5000 to the relief fund and sent two carloads of biscuits to be distributed. They sent representatives here to pay all employes wages in full, and to ascertain al personal losses of employes and reimburse them. In Eastern cities they donated their advertising space in large papers to the local relief committee and also their space in street cars for advertising, etc.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

STEALS A NIGHTGOWN

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—There was a burglary committed at the Central Emergency Hospital at 1.10 o'clock yesterday by a most villainous and ungentlemanly thief. He got into one of the tents and was seen by Special Policeman Percy Schneider carrying away two blankets and a lady's nightdress. Schneider called to the man to halt and when the summons was not obeyed fired two shots at the interloper, who dropped the blankets but still retained possession of the nightdress. The special officer gave chase through the park shrubbery in hopes of regaining possession of the delicate piece of woman's finery, but without avail.

The firing of the pistol shots disturbed the peace of the camp and caused the drowsy officers at the Stanyan street police station to hurriedly arm themselves and congregate and listen to Schneider's story of the burglary. The nature of the theft caused much comment and speculation and no little amusement. The concensus of opinion finally was that as long as the man had left the blankets, if he can make any use of the other article, he should be permitted to retain it in peace.

UNIVERSITY MAN TO GIVE LECTURE

BERKELEY, May 11.—Charles P. Neilson, an instructor in water color painting at the university, will start in a few days for a lecturing tour of the State and the Middle West. Neilson spent three days in San Francisco during the fire and secured hundreds of the best pictures taken of the flames and the ruins they wrought. The purpose of the tour will be to deliver a number of lectures on the fire in the different cities on the coast and in the adjoining States.

Neilson, besides being an artist of note, has been quite prominent on the lecture platform of San Francisco and the cities about the bay. Last year he delivered a course of lectures on "Old Grecian Art."

The project of giving lectures in the State is backed by a number of San Francisco capitalists, and on account of the beauty and accuracy of the views of the fire and the effects of the earthquake, they believe that the lectures will be well patronized.

One special feature of the course of lectures will be the facts concerning the rise of the greater San Francisco. It is not Neilson's purpose to tell simply of the calamity and horror of the situation, but he will include the spirit of the people of San Francisco and the steps they are taking to make their city the finest in America.

Catherine Heath Angello, prominent in club life in Alameda, will be the general manager of the lectures. George E. Dickie, a graduate of the university, will be the business manager. The start will be made from Venicia, and will include all the towns of the coast. Lectures will also be delivered in Salt Lake, Denver and Omaha.

EXPRESS SYMPATHY FOR U. OF C.'S LOSS.

BERKELEY, May 11.—President Wheeler, of the University of California, has just received a set of resolutions passed by the Cornell University Club of Southern California. The eastern graduates express their sympathy for the two great western universities by the following resolutions:

Resolved, That keenly alive to the horrors of the calamity which has befallen all our friends in Northern California, we, the members of the Cornell University Club of Southern California, assembled in fraternal celebration and in reminiscent reunion, grateful for the almost unbroken weal of the past forty years of the history of beloved Alma Mater, do now reach out eager hands and heartfelt sympathy to those who have most nobly, ably and successfully borne the colors of Cornell through the burden and heat of well-fought battles, to victory in the cause we all hold dear.

Resolved, That we strive to express in the feeble form of words, through our revered alumnus, Dr. David Starr Jordan, and through our adopted brother, Dr. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, to the faculties and students of Leland Stanford University and the University of California, at once our sincere grief and sympathy in their affliction, our warm and lofty appreciation of the matchless structures they have erected beyond the power of shock or tumult to impair, and our unalloyed faith and hope in the greater glory of their future labors.

Resolved, That in their past marvelous accomplishments, we recognize the innate Cornell spirit, and we rest assured that by the same token will arise from this crushing disaster even greater and better things with the oncoming years.

Men who try to keep up appearances often find it necessary to keep up appearances later on

Perfect Malt
Perfect Beer

Malt is well said to be "the soul of beer." It is the life, the vitality, the substance of beer, and perfect beer is possible only with perfect malt.

Though perfect malt is an absolute essential, no brewer, even with perfect malt, can make pure, high quality, wholesome beer without pure water, choicest hops and clean machinery—all managed by experienced brew-masters along thoroughly scientific lines.

Pabst for sixty years has been the pioneer in perfecting the most highly scientific processes of brewing, and to-day he leads in the manufacture of the purest and best beer.

Pabst Beer is made only from eight-day malt. This means that Pabst Beer contains the highest amount of nutrition obtainable from malt. The exclusive Pabst eight-day method gets all the good out of the barley into the malt and insures more invigorating food extractives than are found in any other malt. This, coupled with sixty years of practical brewing experience, makes Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer unequaled as a nourishing tonic and a delicious beverage. Next in importance to eight-day malt is cleanliness, and we might very well say just as important, for cleanliness is not only desirable but necessary in brewing the best beer. And in this again Pabst excels. The mammoth Pabst brewery in every department is as clean as the cleanest kitchen and the beer from mash-tub to keg or bottle is never touched by human hands. It passes through sterilized tubes and pipes into hermetically sealed sterilized tanks, and every known safeguard is established to prevent contamination.

The ingredients of Pabst Beer are the purest and best money can buy, and it is given to the public only when science and the test of time show it to be perfect in age, purity and strength; the best beer brewed.

ROBBERS ARE SURROUNDED

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 11.—A special to the Province from Kaloops, states that the train robbers are surrounded in the woods near Campbell's Meadow, southwest of Kaloops. The dispatch adds: Sheriff Wood sent a messenger to town this afternoon for more Indians to assist in the capture. The messenger declares that there is no chance for the robbers to escape. There are more than one hundred men in the posse.

ANOTHER CONCERT AT UNIVERSITY

BERKELEY, May 11.—The music that was telegraphed for having arrived from New York, those in charge of the symphony concerts at the University of California are now able to announce the complete program for the last concert of the first series. It will begin with Beethoven's "Ruins of Athens" music, which will be followed by his Fifth Symphony. This has been termed "the greatest of all symphonies," and with its opening theme, "Fate Knocking at the Door," is especially appropriate. The third number will be Grieg's delightful "Peer Gynt Suite," and the fourth, Wagner's "Waldweben." The program and the series will close with Tschaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite." Seventy-six musicians are now rehearsing daily, so that neither in the quality of the music offered nor in its rendition will the last concert fall below its predecessors.

The entire net proceeds of this concert will be devoted to the relief of the sufferers by the fire, particularly the members of the orchestra, many of whom lost heavily, and practially all of whom by the destruction of the cafes and theaters find their occupation gone. Tickets for the concert of April twenty-sixth are valid for this one, and subscribers whose tickets were burned can secure duplicates by applying to Professor Armes.

TIVOLI COMPANY NORTH.

William Bussel, manager of the Third Avenue Grand Theater, Seattle, has completed arrangements with Frank W. Healy, of the Tivoli Theater, for a season of comic opera at the Grand Opera House, Seattle, to begin Sunday, May 20th.

The engagement is for four weeks with a possibility of being extended into eight weeks, after which the company will tour the Puget Sound country and then play a season in Portland. It is expected that they will probably be seen in Oakland later, and arrangements to that effect are now being perfected.

The company is composed, for the most part, of members of the Tivoli Opera Company. Teddy Webb, the principal comedian of the company for the past eight years, will be the main funmaker, while Elda Hemmi will be the Prima Donna of the company. Bert Bradley, the well-known tenor who made such a success of "The Isle of Spice," will travel with the company.

Edward Bishner, director of the Tivoli, will have charge of the music. The chorus will be composed entirely of members of the Tivoli Opera House chorus. "Ermite" is announced as the opening opera.

SHIPLOAD OF JUTE ARRIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Thousands of bales of jute to make grain bags have reached port in the ship Hercules which has begun unloading at Howard street pier No. 1, and it i sexpected will play an important part in relieving the shortage in bags which it is believed will be greatly fe't within the next few weeks as soon as the harvesting of the grain crops of the San Joaquin valley and other large grain raising sections begins.

The Hercules is from Singapore and has 5000 bales of jute aboard consigned to the China and Japan Export Company. The fire destroyed large quantities of bags and jute, and extraordinary measures will have to be taken to supply the demands for bags, and this and other large shipments are being anxiously awaited.

SCROFULA AN INHERITED MISFORTUNE

Every one has a hereditary right to a pure blood supply, which insures a strong, healthy body; but how many do we see who have inherited that greatest of all misfortunes, Scrofula, and are struggling under a legacy of disease and suffering? Scrofula is a constitutional trouble handed down from parent to child, a curse from generation to generation as long as the scrofulous matter is allowed to remain in the family blood. As the very foundation of the blood is diseased we see this awful affliction manifested in many ways, such as enlarged glands or tumors about the neck, which often burst and become discharging ulcers, weak eyes, chronic Catarrh of the head, skin diseases, etc. This blighting disease being so firmly intrenched in the blood often attacks the bones, resulting in White Swelling, or hip disease, while a pallid, waxey appearance of the skin, loss of strength, and often lung affections show that the disease is entirely destroying the rich, nutritive qualities of the blood. There is but one way to cure Scrofula and that is to purify the blood and rid it of the germs of disease, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. Its purifying and building-up properties make it the ideal remedy for Scrofula. S. S. S. searches out and destroys all poisons and germs, gives strength, richness and vigor to the weak, polluted blood and cures Scrofula permanently. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine, made from roots, herbs and barks and may be taken with absolute safety by young or old. It so thoroughly removes the poison from the blood that no signs of it are ever seen again and posterity is blessed with a pure blood supply. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired without charge.

COMMERCIAL BANKS ARE TO OPEN MAY 21

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The commercial banks have been keeping a secret which they intend to spring on the public as a surprise. It has been formally announced by the Clearing-house Association that the banks in that organization will open "not later than June 1st." The surprise to the public is to come in the opening of the banks on Monday, May 21st, which is the date privately agreed upon by the Clearing-house Association.

One of the reasons for not making public the earlier day of opening is that the bankers, being most conservative men of business, fixed an outside date beyond which they would not remain closed, wishing to be sure that no accident might prevent their resuming business at that time. But now they hope to open, and believe that they will be able to do so, on May 21st, or eleven days earlier than at first stated.

The Clearing-house Association held its daily meeting yesterday forenoon with Chairman Homer S. King presiding. The subject of the country banks was discussed. Most of the local commercial banks have notified their country correspondents that they may have all the money they wish. One bank to which the Crocker-Woolworth forwarded $250,000 returned the money yesterday, as it had no use for the coin, its deposits exceeding the withdrawals. But a few of interior banks are fretful. Their cases were referred to a committee and the following resolution was adopted by the association:

Whereas, The conditions of the mercantile, banking and other business interests of the entire State are disturbed by the inability of San Francisco to immediately resume business after the conflagration which destroyed its whole business section; and whereas, proper time should be given to safeguard these interests, and business men and the financial institutions should be allowed ample time for the adjustment of insurance and the opportunity to arrange to protect existing contracts; and whereas, the Governor, at the request of the representatives of business interests of the State and also upon the request of the State Board of Bank Commissioners, has declared and has continued to declare holidays; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the San Francisco Clearing-house Association, that the action of the Governor in declaring such public holidays be and is hereby heartily indorsed, and that he be requested to continue to declare public holidays from day to day until the business conditions of the State become such as to render them no longer necessary."

If the savings banks follow their original intention of opening on the same day as the commercial banks, they, too, will swing back their doors on May 21st. The Savings Bank Association met last Monday and adjourned until Monday of next week, agreeing to do nothing in the meantime. At next Monday's gathering they will decide upon the day of opening. Some of the representatives of the savings institutions said yesterday that there was little doubt that they would open on the same day that the commercial banks resumed business. When the savings banks reopen each will proceed independently and under its own rules of business. Each bank will arrange its payments, loans and interest as a domestic affair and without regard to what any other bank may be doing.

It will be of interest to the 80,000 depositors in the Hibernia Bank to know that its vaults have been examined by experts and pronounced to be in the best state of preservation of any similar receptacles of their size in the city. This was due not only to the quality of their construction, but to the fact that the bank building is but one story and there were no verhanging walls to fall upon the vaults. The first load of lumber to leave a yard in this city after the fire was hauled to the Hibernia Bank and yesterday the scaffoldings that had been run up for interior repairs were removed. New counters, desks and other furnishings are being put in with great expedition.

It has been agreed among the savings banks to make known the date of their opening by large advertisements in the papers, so that all their customers may be informed.

The commercial banks are doing business in their temporary quarters much the same as before the fire. Necessarily these quarters are somewhat cramped, most of them being situated in private dwellings, but the business itself has also been curtailed by the destruction of two-thirds of the commercial area of the city, so that there is little overcrowding.

Among the indications of a return to normal conditions is the daily clearing of the new business of the banks at the headquarters of the Clearing-House Association at Clay and Laguna strets. The balances as between the city commercial banks are paid in coin at the Clearing-House Bank in the Mint.

Most of the banks have been ready to open for several days and have been doing regular as well as "special" or new business at their headquarters. All persons requiring money for essential purposes are given all they wish. At a recent meeting of the Clearing-House Association it was unanimously agreed to take the $500 emergency limit off in such cases and many individuals and firms are now drawing money as though nothing had happened in San Francisco.

The emergency business in the Mint Bank is nominal. This bank has already paid out $700,000 on new business. Much of the money paid out in excess of the usual emergency orders goes to individuals and firms engaged in clearing away debris and in new construction, most of which finds its way into the pockets of laborers and follows the continuous chain of general circulation. There is, in fact, a glut of money in the banks for use in those channels that lead to the upbuilding of San Francisco and the restoring of it to its former pedestal of prosperity.

Are You Fit
To be Trusted with a Good Set of BRAINS?
GRAPE-NUTS
Keep them in Order.
BRAIN FOOD AND REPAIRER

Every minister, lawyer, journalist, physician, author or business man is forced under pressure of modern conditions to the active and sometimes over-active use of the brain.

Analysis of the excreta thrown out by the pores shows that brain work breaks down the phosphate of potash, separating it from its heavier companion, albumen, and plain common sense teaches that this elemental principle must be introduced into the body anew each day, if we would replace the loss and rebuild the brain tissue.

We know that the phosphate of potash, as presented in certain field grains, has an affinity for albumen and that is the only way gray matter in the brain can be built. It will not answer to take the crude phosphate of potash of the drug shop, for nature rejects it. The elemental mineral must be presented through food directly from Nature's laboratory.

These facts have been made use of in the manufacture of Grape-Nuts, and any brain worker can prove the value of the proper selection of food by making free use of Grape-Nuts for ten days or two weeks. Sold by grocers everywhere (and in immense quantities.) Manufactured by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

NEW BUSINESS IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, May 11.—Alameda is feeling the effect of the general hegira of enterprises from San Francisco to this side of the bay.

The Dow Steam Pump Works, which had a branch plant located on the tidal canal near the Park street bridge, will probably conduct their whole business permanently hereafter at this place. The company is seriously considering this plan.

Cluett, Peabody & Company, shirtmakers, are located in the Blanding Hall on Webb avenue. They are building a big addition, the work being done by Foster & Son. Manager Gray states that his firm may be located here for a year or more. The concern has installed a stock of about $100,000, which was rushed from their factories in the East. It is said that $8000 was expended on express bills for bringing the freight here without delay.

The E. J. Shattuck Ink Company has purchased the building on the south side of Blanding avenue, east of Park street. They will have a permanent plant there.

L. S. Simon & Company, button manufacturers, who were at Battery and Market streets, San Francisco, are getting ready to install a stock at 152 Park street. They expect to be here only sixty days, returning to San Francisco at that time.

The Empire Glove works have opened a factory at 1617-1619 Park street. They anticipate being in Alameda some time.

Wichman, Lutgen & Company have opened a temporary office and warehouse on Harrison avenue.

The Winchester Repeating Arms company have a wareroom on Park street, opposite Webb avenue and an office at 1422 Park street.

Temporary offices of the Transatlantic Fire Insurance Company of Germany and the Federal Insurance Company of New Jersey have been opened in Harmonie Hall on Paru street.

It is reported that a clothing factory is to be opened on Webster street in the near future. The concern will employ many hands.

The old Oakland Traction Company's barn on Webster street has been leased by the J. L. Daniells' Leaf Tobacco Company and a rubber concern.

ANXIOUSLY AWAIT NEWS OF DROWNING

BERKELEY, May 11.—No news has yet been received in this city of the particulars of the drowning of L. Edgar E. Chapman, a member of the junior class at the University, and Miss Mildred McKay, a sophomore student, who lost their lives in the San Lorenzo river near Santa Cruz.

The two unfortunate undergraduates had taken a fishing trip on the San Lorenzo river below the Big Trees resort. Chapman had been visiting the McKay family at Seabright, a summer resort near Santa Cruz. It is thought that the double drowning was the result of the accidental overturning of the boat. The girl's body, the face gashed with cuts caused by the sharp-edged rocks, was found on the beach. Young Chapman's body was not recovered.

Chapman was a prominent member of the junior class at the University, being a member of the staff of the Blue and Gold and class yell leader.

The young man's father is E. C. F. Chapman, a business man of Blayley, Australia. Miss McKay is registered at the University from Santa Cruz. The two, while in Berkeley, boarded at 2228 Chapel street.

WEALTHY MAN IS IN HANDS OF COUSIN

J. E. Harriman, a wealthy merchant of Hampton, Iowa, who was found wandering about the Oakland mole and was arrested on suspicion of insanity, has been delivered to his cousin, Dr. T. G. Harriman of Los Angeles. It was decided that Harriman's mind was not unbalanced, but that he had been indulging too freely in stimulants. Dr. Harriman will take his cousin back to Iowa.

KNOWS NOT THE NAME OF HIS LADY LOVE

Murty Sullivan has learned to think so much of "Mrs. Waler" that he wants her to marry him. He has even gone so far as to ask her to share the lot of an Oakland expressman for life. Yet he has never found sufficient courage to ask the buxom widow her first name.

Murty appeared at the County Clerk's office to procure a marriage license and to register as a voter. He registered first. His name was Murty Sullivan; he said he was 50 years old and a native of Ireland; he was an expressman and lived at 644 Thirty-sixth street. Then he gave a description of himself and his visible marks and scars, forswore all allegiance to foreign powers and potentates and demanded a marriage license.

To Deputy Clerk Donahue, the acting cupid, Sullivan handed a slip of paper on which was inscribed, "Mrs. Waler, Ireland, 45 years old; residence, Oakland."

"What's the lady's name?" asked Donahue.

"It's on the paper," replied Sullivan.

"But her first name?" persisted the clerk.

"It's on the paper," repeated Sullivan. "That's all I know."

"What did you call her when you proposed?" asked Donohue, with Cupid's own patience.

"That's my business," replied Sullivan with rising anger, and a license was issued entitling Murty Sullivan and a Mrs. Waler to wed. It is now up to Murty to say which Mrs. Waler shall become the blushing bride, provided that more than one Mrs. Waler is willing.

ARREST FLEEING MAN.

BERKELEY, May 11.—Benjamin F. Calhoun, the painter who is accused of having assaulted his wife a few days ago at their residence at 2501 Telegraph avenue, has been arrested. He was taken into custody by Officer Jamison just as he was boarding an overland train at the Sixteenth street station in Oakland. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon. His bail has been fixed at $5000.

LOG RAFT AFLOAT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Great alarm has been caused among shipping men over a report brought by the steamer Elva, which arrived at Eureka yesterday, that on May 9th, off Point Gorda, she sighted thousands of loose piles floating everywhere in the vicinity.

It is believed that these piles are a part of the immense log raft lost off the Eureka coast about a week ago, by the steamer Francis H. Leggett. The presence of these piles is a serious menace to shipping and considerable uneasiness is felt over the matter.

HYPNOTIZING LOCOMOTIVE

[illegible] F. Lyman, said to be a wealthy cement contractor of Treka, Cal., was found trying to hypnotize a locomotive at Fruitvale last evening and was arrested on a charge of insanity by Constable Tom Carroll. He declared that he could stop the locomotive with his hypnotic glance and was standing between the rails making passes at an approaching train when rescued by the [illegible] constable. Lyman is now at the Receiving Hospital in a straight jacket, and he will be examined by the Lunacy Commission tomorrow.

ADOPT AMENDMENTS TO RATE BILL.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Consideration of the railroad rate bill was resumed in the Senate today.

Senator Allison was prompt in presenting the first of his compromise amendments, striking out the words "fairly remunerative" from the fourth section of the bill as descriptive of the rates which the Interstate Commerce Commission may prescribe. The amendment was adopted without debate or diversion. The second amendment limiting to two years the life of the commission's orders, was next adopted.

Senator Bailey of Texas presented his amendment prohibiting inferior United States Courts from issuing temporary injunctions against the orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

INVENTOR IS DEAD

Francis J. McCarty, 18 years of age, and the inventor of the wireless telephone, who was seriously injured in a runaway accident on May 8, died at 9:45 this morning at the Providence Hospital, where he was taken after the accident. McCarty was driving down Broadway when his horse took fright at the corner of Sixth and Broadway. McCarty was hurled from the cart to the ground, striking his head and shoulders and receiving injuries which resulted in his death.

He was treated by Dr. O. D. Hamlin at the Receiving Hospital, and was afterwards taken to the Providence Hospital, where he died after lingering three days. He leaves a brother who is the vice-president of the wireless telephone system, and a mother and family residing in San Francisco.

GOV. PARDEE SENDS THANKS

Governor Pardee this morning dispatched a personal letter to Governor Meade of Oregon, thanking the chief executive of the northern State and the people of Oregon in the name of the people of California for the generous and spontaneous aid extended to the destitute people of San Francisco during their time of trouble and calamity.

In addition to his letter of thanks to Governor Meade, Governor Pardee has written to a number of physicians and nurses of Portland, who, since the destruction of San Francisco, have been devoting their time and service to the relief of the sufferers, thanking them for their splendid work. Those to whom the Governor has sent letters of thanks are:

Dr. R. T. Boals, St. Vincent' Hospital, Dr. Ferdinand Damrasch, Dr. John Barker, Dr. W. W. Spencer, Dr. J. B. Beldenbach, Dr. C. J. McCushie, Dr. W. R. Ellis, Dr. Ralph Matson, Dr. McKetchie, Miss Josepha Stanfer, Miss Anna Rudy, Miss Marie O'Connor, Miss Petronella Arton, Miss Mamie Sierward, Miss Grace O'Donnell, Miss Marie Cronar, Miss Violet Dany, Miss Marie D. Comfort, Miss Annie Swanson, Mrs. Eleanor Hulse and Mrs. Catherine O'Donnell, from St. Vincent's Hospital, Miss Helen Godfrey, Miss Flora Fleming, Miss Helen Copeland and Miss Mary Welsh of the Good Samaritan Hospital, and Miss Oro King of Medford, Or.

CARUSO'S MEMORY.

One of the first things Sig. Caruso had to say after his escape from San Francisco was:

"I never shall forget it. I am losing $2500 a night."

Is America going to be so ungenerous as to give all its sympathy to San Francisco and keep none of it for Caruso?—Chicago Record-Herald.

STANDARD SECRETS

CHICAGO, May 11.—At the Interstate Commerce hearing today the attorney read a number of letters written by Maxon, in which he threatened to make trouble for the Standard Oil Company because he had been refused a year's leave of absence. One of the letters read:

"I mean to make all the trouble for the company I can. Your attorney, Mr. Eddy, attacked my interests before the Legislature at Springfield, Ill., and I will get even before I am through."

Maxon admitted being the writer of the letters.

"Is it not true that you have about 1000 letters and documents in your possession belonging to the Standard Oil Company of Kentucky?" asked Mr. Laforge.

"I have a large number of letters and papers addressed to officers of the company and letters written by them to their agents," the witness replied.

"How did you get them?"

"In the same way that for years I got information for the Standard Oil Company."

Attorney Laforge then read a letter written by Maxon to C. M. Pratt, an officer of the Standard Oil Company in New York, in which he said that he had obtained 600 letters from one of the company's agents in Ohio, and had allowed Commissioner Garfield to copy them for use in prosecuting the company.

In answer to questions of the attorney regarding passes, Maxon said that he had passes on nearly every railroad in his territory and used them in traveling on the company's business. He obtained the passes, he said, from Treasurer Holmes and other officials of the Standard Oil Company.

WANT TO KNOW CANAL'S NEEDS

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Demand being made by the House Committee on Appropriations for the estimates for work on the Panama canal to carry on work during next fiscal year, Secretary Taft has explained to the committee that it will be impossible to submit detailed estimates until the arrival here of Chief Engineer Stevens, who is now on his way from the Isthmus.

The total to be asked for is said to aggregate $26,000,000, but owing to lack of knowledge here as to the amounts to be asked for to pay skilled and unskilled labor, the figures cannot be submitted. The committee is to include this appropriation in the sundry civil appropriation bill, which is now being compiled. It is understood that the estimates will be made the subject of extended hearings before the committee, that the members may be in a position to give the House detailed information regarding the necessity for each item included.

This will cause some delay in the finishing of the sundry civil bill, which it had been hoped to get into the House next week.

LEADER'S WIFE DIES IN ZION

CHICAGO, May 11.—Mrs. Henry Cantell, wife of the general overseer of the Zion Church in England and Ireland, died today in Zion City.

For several days the elders of the church offered prayers for her recovery. She died without medical attendance and her infant child survived her but a short time. The coroner will hold an inquest.

"You know," remarked Mr. Klumsey, "they say dancing is the poetry of motion."

"Huh!" snorted Miss Grace, just recovering from a waltz with him, "but when the feet get twisted it's mere doggerel."—Catholic Standard Times.

IS LOOTING RIGHT OR WRONG?

SOME FORMS OF IT ARE LEGAL SAYS THIS LECTURER.

BERKELEY, May 11.—C. M. Drake, editor and former teacher, delivered an interesting lecture to the Ethical Army on the question, "Is Looting Ever Justifiable?" at the First Congregational Church last night. The speaker defended some forms of looting and declared that under some conditions looting was not, ethically, wrong. He contended that the people of today have a higher sense of morals than did the ancients. Drake's complete lecture on this interesting subject follows:

"Mr. President and Fellow Looters, We are to discuss the question of looting. Looting has been honorable for centuries. Moses was a looter. So were Joseph, Joshua, Job, and all of the good men of olden times. The taking of spoils is mentioned a score of times in the Bible and never with disapproval.

"Looting is not stealing; it is plundering. Sir Francis Drake, a disreputable relative of mine, was a professional looter. So were Caesar, Napoleon, and thousands of other great men, looters.

"Of course the fact that they were great men does not make looting justifiable now. The question is, not whether looting was ever justifiable, but is it ever justifiable?

"I am aware it is not the popular side to justify looting, but when every train brings looters to this side of the bay there must be some excuse for some of them.

"ALL ARE LOOTERS."

"Naturally we are all looters. As children we loot berry patches, melons, and orchards. Later in life the University of California co-eds loot Professor Moses' cherry trees. I was raised by Quaker parents who taught me it was wrong to loot even ripe watermelons. Can honesty go farther than that? I do not expect you to credit it, but I was 25 years old when I looted my first melons.

"It was a hot August day. I was very thirsty. It was four miles to water. I came to a melon patch. The owner was not at home. He was a looter himself. He was looting land from my Uncle Sam under a pretense of a homestead. See what a list of extenuating circumstances! The field of melons tempted me as the apple tree did the original Adam. Unlike Adam no woman was with me to share the blame. I fell—upon a melon. It tasted as good as it thumped.

"Which man of you will say that looting was not justifiable? I never have felt one seed of repentance for that loot.

"Yet some of the late looters in San Francisco were more justifiable than I. There were hungry refugees in a park. A semblance of a man drove there with bread for which he asked fifty cents a loaf. The wagon was looted. Each starving man took a loaf. I say it was right.

SACRED RIGHTS.

"A grocer closed his store, refusing to sell to starving men. His store was looted. I say that was right.

"There is a great deal of rot talked about the sacred rights of property. What rights have you to your property? The right of common consent. That is all. Withdraw that consent and the property is community property, or mine, or it may be destroyed. That is mine which I can keep by force or guile. Don't be shocked. The assessor takes your property and values it. The tax collector loots you here of two and a half per cent of what you cannot hide or lie out of. The Standard Oil loots you of more. The insurance company makes more than is fair to elect Presidents and senators. But why say more?

"Query. Is it wrong to loot from looters?

"Suppose Rockefeller's house had burned. How many of you would feel pangs of conscience to loot among his ruins? Honestly, don't you feel that a part of his billion of dollars belong to you of right?

"A Berkeley man came across a looter with a sack full of loot. He took the loot fro mthe looters. What should he do with it? He reasoned thus: 'I don't know the owners of these things. I gave $10 to the Relief Committee. I guess I have as good a right to these things as anybody.'

"Let us look at another kind of looting. A store is burning. The owner can save no more. At the risk of his life a looter saves some things. Whose are the things he has saved? The law recognizes salvage. Yet men were shot for doing that very thing.

ABANDONED PROPERTY.

"I say, and the law says, that abandoned property belongs to the one who makes use of it.

"I looted the day after the earthquake. It was in the walk by the burning St. Francis. A trunk had been carried out. It had burned and the contents were still burning. Plainly the owner had not thought the things worth taking away. I knew the few things of any value would be picked up in an hour. So far as I could see they were of little money value. I explained to a policeman I wanted a few for relics. He pointed to others poking among other burned trunks and told me to take what I wished. So I looted a little—two pockets full.

"I had thirteen pockets but thirteen is an unlucky number. I still think, knowing that the owner was not hurt by my looting, that it was justifiable.

"What of others? Here is what has been a store. It was burned. It was burned. In the ruins are perishable articles soon to be valueless. Here are dishes with a tottering wall threatening instant destruction. If you loot you save property from destruction. Pay the owner? Who is the owner? Perhaps the insurance company. It is not wrong to loot from an insurance company. Ask Senator Depew if it is.

"A man stumbled over bricks and debris in the street. He uncovered four silver dollars. Whose dollars? He looted. Justifiable.

"When I was a boy my parents had me help fugitive slaves on their way to Canada and to freedom. I learned there was legal property no one had a right to possess. I think that way about saloons. Coming down Market street I saw a man burnt to a cinder. He had stumbled into a pit of burning debris while drunk.

"A little farther on men were looting a saloon. The house had been partly burned and men were coming out with bottles of liquor. I did not feel it my duty to say a word to stop them. I was sorry Carry Nation was not there with her little hatchet. Is it ethically wrong to loot a saloon?

"In trying to decide what is ethically just we must know the conditions. A right of today may be wrong tomorrow. Take slavery as an instance. It was right when it took the place of killing and torturing captives. So with looting. It was right when it took the place of wanton destruction. War is wrong but at times we must fight. If we fight and loot territory or get loot under the name of indemnity that may be better than not doing it—for humanity.

"We looted California from Mexico. The great powers looted almost an entire continent—Africa. Perhaps it was for the good of humanity. We do not know. England burnt her fingers looting the Boers but burnt fingers get well. I burnt mine looting the hot cups out of that burning trunk. Served me right?

IN CHINATOWN.

"We object to the Chinese. We say they ought not to be here. Hundreds of people feel they have a right to loot in Chinatown. Fifty happy white looters. One unhappy looted Heathen Chinee! The greatest good to the greatest number. Just what the ethical army wants. Our army and navy looted the imperial palace at Peking not many years ago. That may have been justifiable. A good example for the Chinatown looters?

"How is this for an ethical proposition? If a thing is of little value to you and of great value to me I have a right to that thing at your valuation. It naturally follows that looters of things of little value, save of sentiment, do not feel the stings of conscience.

"To recapitulate: Looting may be justifiable as a war measure; as a substitute for destruction; to preserve property that would otherwise perish, or even greatly depreciate; as a recourse against great hunger or thirst, and, perhaps, when we loot from looters.

"All of us have a community interest in all property. There is something about a fire which burns away individual ownership in many things. That feeling makes looters of many who would not actually steal. I do not attempt to defend some looting—most looting. Perhaps, in time, all looting will be wrong. But at present I hold some looting is justifiable.

"We are getting better than our forefathers were. Adam looted an apple tree, I have been told. I never did. But we had lots of apples at home. It is much easier to keep from looting if you don't need the loot.

"So I will now leave the further discussion of looting to—other looters. My looting may not have been justifiable but I do not hide like Adam. Nor do I call the loot, souvenirs, though that is a nicer word than loot."

RUSSIAN COUNCIL

ST. PETERSBURG, May 11, 6:20 p. m.—The third act in the great drama of Russian Parliamentarism, the formal opening of the recognized Council of the empire, or upper house of Parliament, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Hall of the Nobles, in the Winter Palace. The pomp old Russian official life, the absence of which at the opening meeting of the popular lower house of Parliament in the Tauride Palace yesterday was significant of the new spirit in Russian affairs, found vent in the convocation of the Council of the Empire, which with half the members elected and half appointed forms the connecting link between the new and the old systems.

DISPLAY OF RIBBONS.

The display of uniforms and orders, vivid ribbons and gold braid which was seen at its height during the ceremonial at the Winter Palace yesterday, was repeated on a smaller scale in the great hall of the Nobles today. The ministers displayed their full regalia, the members of the Chancellory wore court dress and swords, the doors were guarded by servants in picturesque livery and the boxes were occupied by diplomats and high officials and richly dressed women and though a number of the elective members were not in uniform, the colored smoke and waftan of the peasant and the high boots and rough coats of the workmen were not in evidence.

The majority of the elective members, indeed, who came from the landed nobility and upper ranks of commerce and industry, vied with the appointives in the number and richness of their decorations. Only a sturdy little group of Liberal professors, pledged to move the abolition of the legislative body to which they were elected, came in democratic simplicity, their civil garb not being relieved by a ribbon or a medal.

DISTINCTIVE BODY.

While the lower house of parliament is distinctive a body of new men, the names of the members of the council of the Empire can be found in the index of Russian history of the past century, including Ignatieff's, Alexieff's, Pobedinostseff's and the Dolgoroukoff's of the old regime, a mass of retired ministers, soldiers and statesmen of the past, the heads of many of Russia's noblest families. Though picturesque as a pageant, the ceremony at the opening was uneventful and unimportant historically. After Count Solsky, president of the upper house, had declared the session open, the transaction of business began. It consisted of the announcement of the appointments of officers and the signing of the oath of office.

The only surprise was the reading of an announcement that Count Witte was a working member of the council, the omission of his name from the previous list having been interpreted as a deliberate slight which the Emperor evidently took pains to correct. The unexpected appearance of the tall form of the former premier at the door was the first intimation of the Emperor's action, and it created a buzz of excitement. The explanation of his appearance only came later when a ukase was read appointing Count Witte and M. Manuk'in, former minister of justice to be members of the Council of the Empire.

The organization of the upper house, which followed the programme of the lower house, was preceded by a religious service. After the members had signed the oath the house adjourned.

IDENTIFIED MAN KILLED IN WRECK

SAN JOSE, May 11.—Mrs. William Hansen, of San Francisco, today identified the body of the William Hansen who was killed in the railroad wreck at Edenvale, Wednesday, as that of her husband. He was a native of Honolulu, aged 23, and for three years had worked at his trade of candy maker in San Francisco. He resided at 1522 Sanchez street, and he leaves three small children. He was thrown out of employment by the fire and had gone to Gilroy in search of work and was returning when killed.

LONDON READY TO WELCOME MISS VAN ALEN.

Miss May Van Alen, whose father has taken Rushton Hall, in Northamptonshire, the historic home of the Treshams, on a fifty years' lease, will be among the most notable young Americans in society this season. Miss Van Alen, who is Mrs. William Astor's granddaughter, and therefore a second cousin of William Waldorf Astor, is remarkable for her beautiful long hair, and she dresses admirably. Her sister, Miss Sara Van Alen, was married to Mr. Collier last year, and Miss May Van Alen will therefore be hostess of the magnificent old Tudor mansion which her millionaire father has contrived to bring up to date without altering its characteristic architectural features.—Sketch, London.

GREAT METEOR FALLS IN MOUNTAINS

SALINAS, Cal., May 11.—People just in from Corral Del Tierra country on Santa Lucia range, about twelve miles from Salinas, report that a large meteor fell in that section shortly after dawn yesterday, lighting up the heavens as brilliantly as day. Coming so soon after the electrical storm caused great excitement among residents in that neighborhood.

MINISTER TO BE TRIED FOR HERESY

NEW YORK, May 11—The question of disciplining or of trying on heresy charges Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Carter, who several years ago became prominent in an effort to have the Westminster Confession revised, was taken up today by the Presbytery of Nassau, L. I. The meeting was called because of a letter in which Dr. Carter declares that he does not believe the Westminster Confession to be the truth of God, but "an idol of man's invention as truly as any worshipped in Delhi, Pekin or Africa."

This letter is addressed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church which meets May 18th in Des Moines, Iowa.

The writer terms it a "protest and confession."

The letter is as follows:

"Fathers and Brethren: The Presbytery of Nassau overtured the General Assembly a year ago asking that the brief statement of doctrine be substituted for the Westminster confession as the confession of our church. By a practically unanimous vote the General Assembly rejected this overture and retained the Westminster confession. By this action of the Assembly many ministers are compelled to declare their acceptance of a confession which they do not heartily believe and many of our best members acknowledge a creed of which they are ashamed.

"I appeal from this action of the Assembly to the manliness and honesty of the ministry and membership of the Presbyterian Church.

"Many years ago when I was ordained to the ministry of the Gospel I declared in the most solemn manner that I believed the Westminster confession to be the truth of God. I now, in a very solemn manner, declare that I do not believe it to be the truth of God, that I utterly reject it as a setting forth of the character of the Heavenly Father."

THREE MEN ARE INJURED

ALAMEDA, May 11.—Yesterday afternoon at the new Paris Laundry at Versailles station, the clothes ringing machine blew up and seriously injured three men. Two of the men sustained serious internal injuries, while the third had a limb broken.

DISSOLVE COMPANY

MENASHA, Wis., May 11.—George A. Whiting, first vice-president of the General Paper Company, says the company will dissolve.

"The newspaper publishers will find to their cost that they have killed the goose that laid the golden eggs," declared Mr. Whiting. "The General Paper Company was an organization formed legitimately as a natural means for properly conducting the business of the companies comprising it. When you consider that coal and other raw materials have gone up away above former figures you will appreciate the very fair prices that were granted to consumers. Any man with ten cents worth of brains will see that this has been true. This yellow journal yawping about the General Paper Company is absurd.

"You will doubtless hear a great many remarks about what we are likely to do. I do not know at this time whether one company will be formed or not to combine all the mills under one management. There have been a great many plans suggested."

POPULATION OF ALAMEDA 19,834

ALAMEDA, May 11.—The school census marshal filed his report this morning, showing that the population of Alameda is now 19,834. Last year the population was 18,223, showing a gain of 1611. The number of school census children is 4563; a gain over last year of 281. These reports do not include the refugees who have come to Alameda from San Francisco. The total number of children in Alameda is 5702, there being 4351 white children, 46 negroes and 29 Mongolians.

SULTAN BEAMED ON MR. AND MRS. TOWER

BERLIN, May 11.—Ambassador and Mrs. Charlemagne Tower returned today from a vacation in Southern Europe, including Constantinople. Upon learning of their arrival at the Turkish capital the Sultan sent for Mr. and Mrs. Tower, met them at the door, offered his arm to Mrs. Tower, escorted her to a seat and spent half an hour with them, talking about American affairs, in which Mr. Tower found His Majesty to be surprisingly well informed.

He conferred on Mrs. Tower the grand cross of the Shefakat, which is an order for women, meaning "devotion to duty."

BRIBERY CHARGE IS DENOUNCED

BOSTON, May 11.—One hundred members of the Massachusetts legislature appeared at the office of District Attorney John B. Moran in response to summonses issued by the District Attorney, who has placed before the grand jury evidence in connection with alleged bribery which was a feature of the defeat of the anti-bucketshop bill.

Only twenty-five senators and representatives were detailed for examination before the grand jury. Many of them who at first regarded the matter as a joke today denounced Mr. Moran's investigation as an outrage and a serious reflection on Massachusetts.

The wounded students were taken to a hospital here, fifteen receiving medical attendance. Many others were turned away, as their injuries were too slight to require immediate treatment. One of the students is reported to be seriously hurt.

RIOT THREATENED.

When it became known that many students had been injured, a general riot was threatened. The Mayor addressed the students, pleading with them to avoid further trouble. The Mayor offered his services as a nurse, assisting the doctors to care for the injured. The cause of the trouble is not known. The authorities are investigating.

RESIGNS FROM SPRING VALLEY

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Charles Webb Howard, president of the Spring Valley Water Company, yesterday sent his resignation to the board of directors of his company and the resignation was accepted. Captain A. H. Payson was elected to fill the vacancy and Joseph M. Quay was elected vice-president.

Homer S. King, president of the Bank of California and associated with Mr. Howard in business, said when interviewed by a reporter: "Mr. Howard has for some time been ill. He now feels that he is not capable of coping with the great amount of work to be done in reconstructing the water system."

Captain A. H. Payson, the newly elected president, is one of the most prominent merchants and monied men of the Pacific Coast. He helps to direct several of the largest financial institutions in this city. He has been actively engaged in the management of affairs on the coast of the Santa Fe system, being vice-president of the company and the head resident official on this coast. He is a director and large stock owner in the gas and water companies in this city and in the Bank of California. Captain Payson has also taken an active interest in the management of the Parrott estate. He is married to a daughter of Mrs. Abby Parrott and the late John Parrott.

ALL POLICYHOLDERS TO RECOVER LOSSES

NEW YORK, May 11.—The sufferers by the fire following the earthquake in San Francisco will experience less loss through failure of the insurance underwriters than in any other great conflagration which has visited this country, according to a statement by President John W. Washburn of the National Board of Underwriters at the fourteenth annual meeting of that organization. Washburn said that the San Francisco disaster found the companies better prepared than they ever were before to meet such enormous loss.

"While the calamity is so recent that the amount of losses in the aggregate or to individual companies is not yet known," he concluded, "we have reason to believe that most of the companies will weather the storm and that policyholders will recover their losses with few or on exceptions."

Aggregate property losses from fire in 1905 were represented to be $165,221,650 as against $229,198,050 in 1904. The amount of insurance written by 126 United States companies in 1905 was $1,112,201,243. The premiums received amounted to $158,426,265, and the losses paid were $74,203,556.

CONFESSES A GREAT THEFT

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., May 11.—James B. Felker, treasurer of this city, who was arrested last night, charged with embezzlement from the city treasury, admitted today that his accounts are short not less than $55,000. The greater portion of the money, he said, was invested in mining stocks.

FUND FOR ACTORS.

Editor TRIBUNE—Through the columns of the local press today I learned that a fund was available for distressed actors, having been sent from New York, the proceeds of a benefit gotten up for that purpose. I later came to Oakland to inquire about the matter, and found that the committee was at the Liberty Theater, though I did not see them; but did learn that some of the aforesaid players had received small sums to tide them over, while others had not been approached on the matter. Without being personal in the matter, I would suggest to the honorable committee that there are a few of our profession who hesitate to make known their wants, having a delicacy to appear in the guise of a mendicant. The player gives more often than he receives, and we are all distressed when it comes to the truth of the matter, as we have lost the most of our possessions, and I think there might be some method used in the distribution of the fund now on hand. Yours truly,

EDWIN EMERY.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES.

BERKELEY, May 11.—Mrs. Caroline Wells Chamberlain, a pioneer woman of Berkeley, passed away yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 2317 Channing way, at the age of 67 years. A husband and five daughters survive her. Mrs. Chamberlain was a native of Middleton, Conn., but has lived in Berkeley many years. The funeral was held today from the family residence.

MOB SEEKS LIFE OF PORTUGUESE MINISTER

HALF MOON BAY, May 11.—As the culmination of an attempt to run Adolph Rosa, a Portuguese Methodist minister, out of this place bloodshed and a lynching were narrowly averted.

Rosa, who is a mulatto, was sent here some months ago by Bishop Hamilton to organize and build a church among the Portuguese of Half Moon Bay. He succeeded in converting to his views several of the most prominent Portuguese residents, and they were planning to build a Methodist church. Rosa to be its first pastor. The feeling here as a result of Rosa's success and on account of his color has been very bitter against him among a certain clique of Portuguese.

SOUGHT BY MOB.

Last Sunday evening Rosa was holding services at the home of Mrs. De Brun, one of the new members of his church. A mob of men and boys gathered and clamored for Rosa to come out. He went out upon the porch, together with several of his friends, and he was notified in unseemly language that if he did not leave town in twenty-four hours he would be hanged. Some of the crowd yelled that they would hang him if he did not leave in fifteen minutes.

After breaking up the meeting by standing outside and yelling threats at the inmates of the house the crowd dispersed. Monday morning Rosa swore out warrants for the arrest of several parties, charging them with breach of the peace. At the trial Rosa's attorney asked that the case be dismissed, deeming the charge too mild.

CALLS ON CONSTABLE.

When court adjourned the crowd, including the defendants, waited at the door for Rosa to come out. His attorney, Jay G. Powers, notified the constable that it was his duty to protect Rosa.

Rosa, in company with the attorney, sought to leave the court house, but as soon as they appeared in the doorway the crowd yelled and threatened Rosa with lynching if he did not leave town immediately. Powers then sought safety for Rosa in his own home, followed by the crowd.

When he gained his home Powers ordered the crowd not to enter the premises, arming himself and Rosa. One man entered the premises and he was thrown from the porch. When the crowd saw that the besieged were armed to protect themselves it dispersed.

LEAVES IN NIGHT.

Rosa was driven under cover of darkness to Pescadero and from there took the stage for Redwood City.

Rosa is a native of Portugal, having been in this country but five years. He was a student at Berkeley. It is his intention to seek the help of Bishop Hamilton and the Portuguese Legation at Washington, and also to prosecute his assailants.

GOVERNOR'S ACTION GIVEN ENDORSEMENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The San Francisco Clearing House has passed the following resolution:

"Resolved by the San Francisco Clearing House Association, that the action of the Governor in declaring public holidays be and is hereby heartily indorsed, and that he be requested to continue to declare public holidays from day to day until the business condition of the State become such as to render them no longer necessary."

Many of the large insurance companies have already made arrangements with the commercial banks of San Francisco in regard to paying off insurance policies. The manner of procedure will be in general that the insurance companies will deposit certain sums with the banks and will then pay off claims by simply drawing checks on the local banks. In other instances the insurance companies will pay claims by Eastern drafts. The last mentioned method is not looked upon favorably by local bankers. The bankers say that this way of paying out money will cause much confusion and delay.

CHANCE TO GET YOUR POTATOES FREE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—On the Folsom-street wharf there is a large supply of potatoes which will be given to any persons who are able to send for them. The supply is so large that there is danger of loss by sprouting, and the Red Cross and army has decided they should at once be gotten into the hands of any dealers or private persons who can use them.

DANCE CALLED OFF.

STRENGTHENING WEAK INSURANCE COMPANIES

A few days after the fire in San Francisco was subdued a tabulation of the liabilities of each company in that city was carefully made. It was based upon the latest published statements of the premiums collected there by the local agencies of foreign fire insurance corporations and by the home companies. The official reports of the various companies showed their net surpluses, and a comparison between these surpluses and the San Francisco liabilities showed at a glance the financial status of each foreign agency and domestic company. In the case of the American fire insurance companies the surpluses covered all of their resources, save that embraced in the power to assess stockholders. In the case of the foreign insurance companies, the net surpluses reported applied simply to the resources directly under the control of their American agencies, which, in the event the "home offices" failed to respond to a call for assistance, would have been forced to meet the liabilities as best they could. The call was made and every one answered favorably.

This comparative statement was guarded with jealous care by every insurance man entrusted with a copy, because it made a showing which was very unfavorable to nearly thirty-five insurance companies, two of which were foreign organizations, and it was regarded that its publication would have produced a panic among policy and stockholders which would have increased the general distress immensely. Since then, however, New York fire insurance publications have printed the statement and its appearance has not created a ripple of excitement in insurance circles, because it had become generally known that the companies which appeared from its showing to be weak had repaired their financial standing in the meantime.

VIEWS OF A LOCAL BANKER.

"That statement is now of absolutely no value," said a well-known local banker who is well posted on fire insurance matters, "because it is misleading. Some of the companies figuring in it as apparently insolvent have repaired their capital and credit by various devices, and they are perfectly solvent today. Some of them have hedged by transferring their policies to other companies. Some have obtained strong financial aid from the outside, to protect other interests as well as their own. In the case of the foreign companies word has been sent that the 'home offices' will stand pat. One big American fire company whose available assets consisted chiefly of gilt edged securities, which, at any other time, would have been convertible into cash immediately without disturbing the market, obtained relief from one of the wealthiest financial houses in the world, which took the securities off its hands at or nearly at their quotable value before the conflagration broke out in San Francisco. This step was taken to prevent these securities being thrown on the open market and producing a disastrous slump which would have involved an irreparable loss. The new arrangement will, it is believed, enable the interested insurance company to tide over its difficulties in safety and fully protect its policy-holders."

NO DANGER OF A FINANCIAL CALAMITY.

The representations of the general agent of one of the soundest companies, foreign or domestic, in the field, corroborates the banker's statement. The loss of the companies are enormous, but everything now indicates that they will be full covered and that a financial calamity has been successfully averted.

VISITING FOREIGN INSURANCE MEN

Several representatives of the home offices of the British fire insurance companies reached this city yesterday morning and shortly after their arrival they spent much of their time at the headquarters of the Underwriters Adjusters' Bureau, discussing the situation with the local agents.

LIMIT BUILDINGS TO SIX STORIES, HE SAYS

WASHINGTON, May 11.—"San Francisco is in direct line with an earthquake zone which extends along the Andes mountains in South America to the Arctic region, and my judgment is that no structure exceeding six stories in height ought to be erected in that city."

Captain William L. Merry, American Minister to Costa Rica, Nicaragua and Salvador, expressed this opinion at the White House yesterday. Mr. Merry, who recently arrived in this country from his post on leave of absence, called at the White House with Senator Perkins of California, paying his respects to the President. He was one of the early settlers in California, rounding Cape Horn in 1849. He said:

"In the countries where I have been stationed for many years, we experience four or five earthquake shocks every month. As a rule they are not severe, but the people are not a bit nervous about them, notwithstanding their frequency. The people sometimes run into the streets and kneel down in prayer, but a few minutes afterward they resume their usual avocations. Most of the buildings are only one story high and the severest shocks do not materially affect them.

"The people of San Francisco ought to profit by their dreadful experience and construct buildings which may not be likely to be damaged seriously by earthquakes. It matters now, practically, that the frames of the structures sink four or five feet, as was the case in many instances in San Francisco."

Minister Merry left for San Francisco today. He told the President that conditions in Central America were improving greatly, the improvement being due largely to the extension of the facilities for education of the people.

TRUST IS DEFEATED

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 11.—The United States Government today secured an unconditional surrender in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Sanborn, of the paper trust, against which the Attorney-General began a suit on December 27, 1904, to dissolve a combination between the General Paper Company and twenty-three other defendants, on the ground that an agreement had been entered into by the defendants in restraint of interstate commerce.

Attorney Kellogg, for the government, and Attorney Flanders, for the defendants, appeared before Judge Sanborn, sitting as a Circuit Judge, and Mr. Kellogg moved that the mandate from the United States Supreme Court affirming the order that the witnesses must testify be filed.

Judge Sanborn ordered the mandate filed.

The witnesses then appeared before the United States examiner and offered to testify. The defendants then withdrew their answers. Mr. Kellogg announced that the government did not care to examine the witnesses, and moved for a decree in favor of the government. Judge Sanborn ordered that the decree be entered for the government for the relief prayed, and that the decree should be settled on June 16, and the proceedings were adjourned.

The three witnesses who refused to testify, namely, C. I. McNair, of the Northwestern Paper Company; A. C. Bossard, of the Itasca Paper Company, and E. F. Nelson, of the Hennepin Paper Company, paid into court the $100 fine assessed against each for contempt of court for refusing to answer the questions put to them at a former hearing.

TIME FOR A CASE.

As the curtain fell he stirred uneasily in his seat.

"I wonder," he murmured, "if there would be time—"

He looked around him, appeared to recognize some one, and nodded gravely.

"For me to go out and see that man?"

"Oh, yes, plenty of time," she answered, with a sour smile. "There's an interval of eleven years between this act and the next."

HOUSES FOR 1500

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Small wooden houses capable of housing 1500 have just been completed by the military authorities at Lobos square at North Beach, and a commissary kitchen is to be started in the next few days to feed the people. The cooking of food is being advocated by General Greely, rather than the giving away of the supplies, for he believes that only in this way can the food supply be economically conserved. When finally completed it is intended these rows of houses shall be capable of holding 3500 people.

It is believed that these houses will cover all the needy people of this particular section, and with the commissary department will answer completely all their needs. In this way General Greely hopes to make the food now being contributed go the farthest. The stoppage of the leakage in the giving away of supplies has been one of great concern, and has led to the giving of meal tickets on certain restaurants in what is known as the fourth section of the city. It is expected that within a very short time nothing but cooked foods will be given in any part of the city.

TO RECLAIM MANY ACRES

BERKELEY, May 11.—If the project of the United States government is carried out, over 50,000 acres in the vicinity of Orland, in the Sacramento valley, will be reclaimed and made into fertile land. The department of agriculture at the university will carry on the preliminary steps towards the reclamation of the vast area. The first plan of the government authorities is to investigate the land in question, afterward the processes of irrigating the territory will be made. For this purpose S. Fortier, the irrigation engineer in charge of the Pacific district of the United States reclamation service, has sent a letter to the Sacramento Valley Development Association and the Water Users' Association of Orland, Cal., disclosing an outline of the proposed plan. The Stony creek is to be the basis of operation for the reclamation of the arid country. The letter as sent out by Fortier follows:

To the Sacramento Valley Development Association and the Water Users' Association of Orland, Cal.—Gentlemen. I submit herewith an outline of the proposed investigations to be undertaken in the vicinity of Orland, Cal., during the season of 1906 by the office of experiment stations, United States Department of Agriculture, in co-operation with the Sacramento Valley Development Association and the Water Users' Association of Orland, Cal.:

One—To determine the duty of water under the Stony Creek Land and Water Company during the irrigation season of 1906. This work to comprise the construction of a rating flume in the main canal near its head, the taking and recording of daily gauge heights, the required number of current meter measurements, the computation of the daily discharge of the canal, the necessary measurements to determine the seepage and evaporation losses and the making of a survey of all the lands in different crops which it irrigates. The co-operation of the officers of the canal company is desired to facilitate the work and to arrange with their manager, or one of their field ditch riders, to take and record in books to be furnished daily gauge heights of the water in the rating flume.

Two—To carry on field experiments for the purpose of determining the effect on the yields of applying different amounts of water to alfalfa. For this purpose it will be necessary to select about three fields in good condition, growing on both gravelly and clay soils, and to arrange with the owners to set aside from two to four acres from each for experimental purposes, the owners to be compensated for any diminution of yield caused by such experiments. The fields selected should be near the main canal, or a lateral, and should represent, as nearly as possible, the different kinds of soil within the proposed Orland project. The co-operation of the Sacramento Development and Water Users' associations is desired in order to select the fields and to arrange for the cutting and weighing of each crop of alfalfa.

Three—To apply one or two irrigations to a portion of a grain field in order to compare the yields on irrigated and non-irrigated land. For this experiment the site selected should have a smooth surface, of uniform slope and convenient to a ditch. The use of sufficient water to irrigate from two to three acres of grain to be furnished free of charge by the water company.

Four—A general study of irrigated crops with special reference to the cultivation of citrus trees and sugar beets.

The foregoing includes the main features of the preliminary work to be taken up the first year. If funds are available it is proposed to continue similar investigations for several years by demonstrating the value of a small amount of irrigation water when supplemented by a heavy winter rainfall and by increasing the moisture content of soils by means of winter irrigation and a part of the flood flow of streams.

Kindly inform me at your earliest convenience of any action which your association may take in the matter. I am, respectfully yours,

S. FORTIER,
Irrigation engineer in charge Pacific district.

ALLEGED THIEVES.

The cases of F. W. Cole, J. A. Freitas, A. F. Ericson and John E. Gorman, have been continued by Police Judge Smith to May 11, to plead. The four men are charged with petty larceny, being accused by Detective Seymour of having stolen Red Cross supplies from the Sixteenth street depot.

LABORERS MUST EAT

SAN FRANCISC, May 11.—The question of tiding over a large number of laborers with food and clothing until pay day comes around, which, in the case of some firms, will not be until next month, is a matter that is forcing itself upon the attention of the heads of many of the supply stations throughout the city and caused the passage of the following resolution at a meeting held yesterday, at which Osgood Putnam presided:

"Resolved, That it is the opinion of the relief station superintendents of section four that the employers of labor in San Francisco who are employing labor on credit of future payment, can materially relieve actual distress and hardship by using their credit so as to enable their workmen to purchase food, clothing and shoes on account of their work given to the employes on credit.

"It is respectfully suggested to employers that there are a sufficient number of retail merchants who will compete for exclusive time contracts with employers to enable all the men working to become supplied with food, shoes and working clothes within a very few days. The credit system by which this would be done has been a common custom in operation of mines in California and elsewhere. While unusual in cities, it is quite practicable, and in the present emergency should be put in operation immediately."

LOST EVERYTHING.

In explanation of this it was stated at the headquarters of the relief bureau at Hamilton School that many men had lost everything and that while they had gone to work could not get food and clothing until their pay day.

"A Southern Pacific employe came in here this morning with his feet on the ground," said Putnam's assistant, "and he cannot get a pair of shoes until after the middle of the month, although he has money due him. We believe that employers should try and relieve this condition, as under the rules we are now working we are not supposed to help men who can work, and yet many at the present time need it."

The matter is one that is being agitated and will be called to the attention of the citizens' committee with a view of seeing if some concerted action will not be taken by the large corporations and others employing help.

SOLDIERS ARE GOING HOME

The Seventh Regiment of Infantry, Troop D, of the First Squadron of Cavalry, and the First Company of the Signal Corps, of the National Guard of California, which were called out for duty in this city by Brigadier General Wankowski, immediately after the recent earthquake, have been relieved from duty in Oakland and ordered home. The Seventh Regiment, in command of Colonel S. H. Finley, is from Southern California, and has been quartered in Lincoln Square.

The troops will leave Oakland next Saturday, after which the patrolling of the city will be left entirely in the hands of the Fifth Regiment, which is now quartered at Twelfth and Madison streets, but which will be moved to the General Relief Camp at Adams Point.

THIEVES WORK WHILE HONEST MEN SLEEP

Robert Lloyd of the United States Torpedo Boat Destroyer Perry, which is now lying at Boole's shipyard, reported that he had given Harry Sargeant, the ship's bugler, $28 to keep for him, and that the latter had deserted, taking the money with him.

Rodgers & Lockhart, proprietors of a saloon at 817 San Pablo avenue, found on opening up yesterday morning that the place had been entered by burglars and a lot of whisky and cigars stolen. The case was reported to the police.

Sam Lynch, residing at 1735 Seventh street, reported that he had been robbed of $80 by a negro whose room he had shared after meeting the negro on the street.

Charles Ward, a driver for the Pacific Transfer Company of San Francisco, is mourning the loss of a team of horses and a wagon which were stolen from the corner of Broadway and Third street on May 6.

Mrs. W. D. Deming of Piedmont, reported to Chief of Police Wilson the loss of a handbag containing $40, some keys and some papers, which she dropped from her carriage.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

BERKELEY, May 11.—Edward Alden, an employe of the Golden Sheaf Bakery, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon. The furnace of the big ovens is fed by oil and when the flame accidentally was extinguished Allen attempted to relight it. But has had generated in the meantime and when the match was applied a terrific explosion knocked Alden off his feet. His eyebrows and mustache were burned off and his clothing caught fire, but he retained his coolness and at once extinguished the flames and thus saved his life. Alden's face and neck were badly blistered but the damage done was not fatal and he will be able to return to work in a week.

Alden was at one time the deputy marshall of Berkeley.

SALOON KEEPER PLEADS.

Joseph Cook, a saloonkeeper charged with selling liquor against orders, during the period that the saloons of the city were closed by order of the Mayor, has pleaded not guilty in Department 1 of the Police Court, and the case was continued to May 11 to be set for trial.

Cook also entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of drunkenness, and this case was set for trial for June 6. Cook demanded jury trials in both cases.

FOR THE REFUGEES

Totals were made today for the first time since relief supplies, cash and authorizations to draw for money began arriving in this city in response to the telegraphic appeal of Governor Pardee. They show that since April 18th, there has passed through the office of the Governor either in cash, supplies, authorization to draw for money, appropriations by various municipal, state or national bodies practically four million dollars.

Of this amount there has been received either in cash or drafts for general relief $638,365.57. This is in addition to $100,000 which the city of Philadelphia placed in the hands of Governor Pardee, to be used as he may see fit, and Pittsburg which sent $50,000 to the Governor to use in relieving conditions in the smaller towns which suffered by reason of the earthquake or subsequent fires.

Today the Governor turned over to James D. Phelan, chairman of the finance committee $76,825, this being the amount of money received through his office since his visit to San Francisco on Tuesday.

The response to the appeal for aid has been a most hearty one and there is scarcely a hamlet in the United States which has not been heard from in a very substantial manner. Every notification of an offer of aid has been acknowledged either by wire or letter. The inflow of com, supplies and messages of sympathy began arriving in this city within a few hours after Governor Pardee and his assistants commenced sending out messages to the various parts of the United States. They have been coming in steadily since that time and each mail brings in additions to the already long list.

The offerings of cash from the various cities, town and individuals that have been reported to the Governor's office are as follows:

NO PERSON

Would Make Such a Proposition to the People of Oakland, Unless They Were Absolutely Sure.

Did you ever know or hear of a person who would offer to return every cent you paid him if he could not build up health and create strength and vitality for old people, weak, sickly women and children and the convalescent, create an appetite, cure stomach troubles, make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy? Or cure hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles?

This is exactly the offer The Owl Drug Co. makes to every person in Oakland.

Mr. Specht of the above firm says: "Our offer is based upon what we believe to be the greatest strength-creator and health-restorer known to medicine, Vinol, which is the up-to-date form of administering cod liver oil, recognized for centuries as the grandest of all body-building agents for wasted human strength and vitality.

"In Vinol we have simply done away with the useless system-clogging oil, and given the people all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and we have never sold in our store a medicine of more intrinsic value.

As a body builder and strength-creator for old people, weak women, puny children, after sickness and for all pulmonary diseases, its fame has spread so far that it is now guaranteed by over two thousand of the leading druggists of the country, and especially by us."—The Owl Drug Co.

A DIRECT PROCESS

HOW DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS CURE RHEUMATISM.

Statement From One Who Was Cured of a Particularly Painful Form of This Disease.

In the many forms which rheumatism takes, that which is popularly known as sciatic rheumatism probably tortures its victims more than any other. That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured this stubborn as well as painful trouble is a fact proven by the following statement, and no sufferer who reads this can afford to let prejudice stand in the way of trying these blood-making pills.

Rheumatism is now generally recognized as a disease of the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make—actually make—pure blood. When the blood is pure there can be no rheumatism. There is no "cure-all" claim about this. The action of the remedy is direct and powerful. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured more cases of rheumatism than of any disease except anaemia.

Mrs. Thomas Bresnehan, of 54 Mill street, Watertown, N. Y., says:

"My trouble began with a severe cold which I took about a week before Christmas in 1904. I began to have rheumatic pains in my back and limbs and after a time I couldn't straighten up. I suffered the most awful pain for months and much of the time was unable to leave the house and I had to take hold of a chair in order to walk and sometimes I could not stand up at all. My husband had to help me up and down stairs. The pain was greatest down my left limb, along the sciatic nerve.

"The disease was pronounced sciatic rheumatism and, although I had a good physician and took his medicine faithfully, I did not get any better. After some six weeks of this terrible pain and suffering I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and that is the medicine that cured me. After a few boxes the pain was less intense and I could see decided improvement. I continued to take the pills until I was entirely cured and I have never had any return of the trouble."

$5000 REWARD—The Dr. Williams Medicine Co. has authorized the cashier of the Union National Bank of Schenectady, N. Y., to pay the sum of $5000 upon proof of fraud on the part of the company in the publication of the foregoing testimonial, or any others used in making known the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or the remedy will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

HIGHER TAXES FOR "SHARKS"

County Assessor Henry P. Dalton believes in an eye-for-an-eye policy in dealing with those property owners who took advantage of the earthquake and fire and raised, and sometimes doubled, rents in Oakland. He stated today that those who had benefited by the disaster in the way of rentals and property valuations would be assessed in proportion, and he is now at work formulating a plan to carry that idea into effect.

BANK COMMISSIONERS TRANSACT BUSINESS

The bank commissioners met here yesterday.

A license was issued to the Harbor City Savings Bank at San Pedro, California, to do a savings bank business. Capital $25,000; $12,500 paid. The officers are: Charles Nicolai, president; A. G. Sepulveda, secretary and cashier; James Weir and James H. Dodson, vice-presidents.

The Bank of Southern California was transferred from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and the name changed from the Federal Savings Bank to the above. U. S. Frye is secretary.

The Market Street Bank of San Francisco (this corporation should not be confounded with the Market Street Bank, Seventh and Market streets, San Francisco), has transferred its principal place of business from San Francisco to Los Angeles. T. N. Douglass is president; Charles Ewing, vice-president, and P. J. Gruber, secretary and cashier. Capital is $100,000. Ten per cent paid in.

Secretary Taft says the work on the Panama canal will go on "after every truthful man and every liar has been heard." We trust the beginning of the work will not be deferred that long.—Atlanta Constitution.

WATCHMAN HELD-UP

Three considerate footpads, armed and masked, disarmed and robbed Manuel Oliveira, nightwatchman at Centerville at 1 o'clock in the morning. When they had relieved him of his purse containing $3, they removed the cartridges from his pistol, returned the weapon and ordered him to proceed on his way. He promptly obeyed the order, thankful that he had escaped with his life.

When the earth quaked and refugees fled from San Francisco, the people of Centerville, alarmed at the influx of so many strangers, held a mass meeting and decided to appoint a nightwatch to protect their lives and property. Manuel Oliveira, young and powerful, was selected for this important mission. He purchased a pistol, handcuffs, "billy" and the other paraphernalia that goes with the office and sallied forth in search of wrongdoers.

Everything went well until this morning, when the nightwatchman was making his rounds in the western part of the town. As he turned a corner he suddenly confronted the gleaming barrels of three revolvers and three determined voices demanded "Hands up!"

Up went Oliveira's hands and one of the highwaymen held a gun under his nose while the other two searched him. They took away the revolver, threw away the cartridges, took the $3 and returned the weapon. Then the leader of the trio commanded Oliveira to proceed, which he did as rapidly as possible.

Oliveira says it was so dark that he can give no description of the men, but he would readily recognize the leader's voice.

MRS. LE DOUX'S TRIAL DELAYED

STOCKTON, Cal., May 11.—The trial of Mrs. Emma Le Doux, charged with the murder in this city March 24th, of A. N. McVicar, was yesterday postponed by Judge Nutter from the 22d of May to the 5th of June, owing to the legal holiday season declared by the Governor in consequence of the recent disaster.

HER DIVORCE.

Emma Le Doux, or McVicar, who is charged with murdering her husband at Stockton and putting his body in a trunk, was not divorced from him in Alameda county, as she told the Stockton authorities. Pursuant to a request of Sheriff W. F. Sibley of San Joaquin county, Deputy County Clerk Rogers today went through the records and found that no suit for a divorce by either of the McVicars had ever been filled here.

Mrs. Le Doux and Albert Newton McVicar were married at Bisbee, Arizona, in September, 1902, and McVicar was murdered, March 24, 1906.

BERKELEY SCHOOLS TO CLOSE JUNE 8

BERKELEY, May 11.—Superintendent Waterman has isued the following circular letter to the principals of Berkeley schools relating to time of closing and the promotion cards. It follows:

"Schools will close on June 8th. Owing to the recent loss of time and many interruptions in most of the schools during the fall term, principals will see that the regular recitations are continued in all the classes until the day of closing. All closing exercises, except in the high eighth grades, should be dispensed with.

"Have the promotion cards ready to give to the pupils with their term report cards on Friday noon.

"The promotion sheets can be handed in at any time on Monday or Tuesday following the close of the schools, also the annual reports of the principals. As soon as I hear from the State Superintendent about the legal holidays, I will send out instructions concerning these final reports.

"The Board of Education at their last meeting Tuesday night ordered that the schools should remain in session on Commencement Day (May 16), at the University."

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tacket, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood, which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at Osgood Bros., Broadway, corner 7th, and Washington, corner 12th. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

REAL ESTATE.

AUSTIN SAYS

Notwithstanding the unparalleled demade for downtown business property and for factory and warehouse sites, we must consider the wants of home-seekers, both renters and buyers. My list of all kinds of property is, as always, complete and up to date. Our prices are normal and rents the same and a plentiful supply for all. You will find the prices of the properties I advertise not inflated at all, but many of them REDUCED. Those following prove it. My corps of competent, courteous salesmen is ready and able to handle your business in their customary, thorough manner. Owners can do their part and serve themselves as well by listing their property here for quick results if the prices are fair and reasonable—not otherwise. If you don't see what you want here, we probably have it anyway. Call in and see.

That pretty Piedmont cottage on Walsworth avenue, 4 rooms, bay window, high basement, bath, etc., etc., is still for sale at $1850. No change in that price.

$1450. This is reduced; 5 rooms, all large, high basement, a sunny, cozy, plain little home for a little money. This isn't stylish, but is good as far as it goes. On West Fourteenth street.

$3000 is the same old figure for 6 large rooms, porcelain bath, large porch, combination fixtures new, never occupied, story and a half. Lot 145 feet deep; swell new neighborhood, half block to Grove street on Apgar or Thirty-ninth, and 2 block from Key Route Depot at Fortieth street.

$2750—Store and a very good flat on the best business street in West Oakland. Business all around it. This ought to figure $1000 for the lot and $2500 at least for the building but the owner really wants to sell. You'll never be sorry for at least looking at this.

$2000—Colonial cottage of 4 rooms and bath Lot 70 feet front, irregular in shape, prominent avenue, corner, 2 blocks from the new Key Route and will be business property. Fine place to build a couple of little stores on the vacant part of the lot

$650 for 52x100, or $325 for half of it; street work done; 3 blocks from S. P. R. R. station at San Pablo avenue and Fifty-ninth street. Sewered and everything. You don't need all cash

And only $2500? This house is a house! Look at it! Not a bit of damage, though far from new. Anyway, it's well built and shows it. Has 6 rooms and bath, two story, comfortable, solid, not gaudy. Lot has double frontage, one block from station, above Seventh street, in West Oakland. Rents now for $20, worth $25. How do you like this at $2500?

$8000—Model in every sense. Furnished completely. Cottage of 7 rooms, every convenience, open lawn, lot 50x150 (note that); abundance of vines and shrubbery, cannot be adequately described here; electric cars right there Key Route station about a block away; high ground, near the lake, healthiest locality, in fact for $20,000 you could improve on its cost and size but not its beauty and comfort. If you are looking for a home in its full sense and can afford $8000, seeing this will well repay you.

I have only presented a scattering few of the best ones here. If you want to buy, I probably have just what you want. Any size, any location, any plan of payments. Big or little Improved or not.

LOCAL STOCK EXCHANGE ORGANIZED AT MEETING LAST NIGHT

M. J. Laymance Is Chosen Chairman of the Board.

M. J. LAYMANCE WHO WAS LAST NIGHT CHOSEN CHAIRMAN OF THE OAKLAND STOCK EXCHANGE.

Oakland is to have a Stock Exchange. This was determined last night at a ... of stock brokers and others interested in dealing in securities, held at ... of the Laymance Real Estate Company, when temporary organization of the new board was effected and a committee appointed to formulate plans for the immediate permanent organization of the exchange. More than thirty ... prominently associated with the ... market of the Pacific Coast attended the meeting, and all gave hearty ... of the plan to establish a ... change in this city.

LAYMANCE FOR CHAIRMAN.

M. J. Laymance, the well-known local real estate dealer and broker, was elected chairman of the temporary organization, J. F. Davies being chosen secretary. After a spirited discussion of the plan to organize a Stock Exchange the chairman appointed the following committee to at once formulate plans for the perfection of a permanent board and to confer with the members of the San Francisco Stock Exchange regarding the ... of the two bodies. The members of the committee are: Bernard ... chairman; Ben F. Edwards, ... Davie, Charles D. Laing and ... The members of the committee ... hold a meeting at the offices of the Laymance Real Estate Company ... this evening, when plans will be made for a conference with the members of the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

The conference will be held as soon as possible, as it is the desire of the committee to learn at once just what percentage of the membership of the San Francisco board is desirous of affiliating with the new board during the rebuilding of San Francisco.

NEXT MEETING.

The next meeting of the organizers of the Oakland Stock Exchange will be held at the same place next Saturday, if possible, and it is the expectation of the members of the temporary organization that, unless some unforeseen delays interfere, the new board will be ready for business in about ten days.

During the preliminary discussion of the best method of perfecting the organization of the board last night addresses were made by Frank M. Davis, Bernard P. Miller, Dennis Searles, E. H. Kramer, president of the San Francisco and Tonopah Stock Exchange; Wilfred Page, J. A. Block, George W. Austin, John Choice, G. W. Baker, Edward Strauss, Leon Goldman and several other well-known brokers.

FINANCIAL CENTER.

E. H. Kramer said that undoubtedly this city would be the financial center of the Pacific Coast for some time to come, and as this city had been the first to throw open its doors and extend its hospitality and aid to the distressed public of San Francisco, and this fact was appreciated by every one in the ill-fated city, he believed that there should be but little difficulty in securing the co-operation of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, although the members of that organization had from the first shown a desire to stay with San Francisco during the time of trouble.

Some doubt was expressed that the members of the San Francisco organization would be able to affiliate with the new board, owing to the fact that such action is prohibited by their constitution. In answer to the question thus raised, G. W Baker, a well-known broker, declared that, like every other rule of action, the constitution and by-laws of the San Francisco Stock Exchange were subject to amendment in time of need. Mr. Baker said that he was confident that if the matter was properly presented to the members of the older organization there would be little trouble in securing their hearty co-operation.

The other speakers expressed the same confidence that the Oakland Exchange would prove a success, and after the meeting Chairman Laymance expressed the conviction, that judging from the enthusiastic beginning, the new organization would soon be thoroughly established.

BROKERS PRESENT.

Among the brokers who attended the meeting last night were: Edwin D. Kizer, E. H. Kramer, John Choice, George W. Austin, A. J Darch, J. S. Ewen, J. B. Sutton, J. F. Davies, G. A. Scott, Bernard Miller, R. L. Cheney, D. F. Hughes, J M. Ricketts, A. I. Elkins, J. A. Block, N. B. Greensfelder, H P. Smith, F. L. Fallis, T. Robbins, C. M. Kilburn, Dennis Searles, John Hinkle, W. M. Leete, S. A. Knapp, J B Jordan, Wilfred Page, G. A. Eastman and Leon Goldman.

LIQUIDATION WAVE STRIKES WALL STREET

Severe Losses Are Inflicted, But no Serious Trouble Has Been Reported.

NEW YORK, May 11.—A fresh wave of liquidation of almost cyclonic proportions struck Wall street this week. Conditions were more or less unsettled by the San Francisco disaster, and the opportunity was seized to enforce some rather drastic liquidation, which fell chiefly upon a few prominent and rather too optimistic operators. This last decline in the market resulted in a drop of from ten to fifteen points in many of the active shares, inflicting severe losses in quarters which were fortunately able to stand them. In spite of this rather unusual break there are no rumors of serious trouble at this writing, and the financial atmosphere appears to have been much cleared now that the storm has spent its worst force.

As has been repeatedly intimated in these advices, it was the monetary situation which furnished the instrument of power for the bears. Had it not been for the large demans of San Francisco upon the already overtaxed money market no such enforced decline would have been possible. Fortunately we were able to secure material assistance from abroad and thus mitigate the force of the blow. Some $30,000,000 of money has been remitted to San Francisco and over forty millions of gold has been ordered from Europe, being made immediately available through Secretary Shaw's leniency in depositing treasury gold in return for bonds as collateral.

Much of the money sent to San Francisco to strengthen local banks and prevent panic will soon return into the customary channels of circulation, so no further serious difficulty need be apprehended from Pacific Coast monetary demands, although this catastrophe will be a factor for some time to come.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

Much relief has been furnished by the attitude of the foreign markets toward American securities. Over there confidence is evidently strong in American investments. Large quantities of securities, especially bonds, have recently been sold to foreign purchasers, this being particularly opportune since our own markets are much weighted with new bond issues, which are slow of sale in a 5½ to 6 per cent time money market. It is quite possible that further gold imports may be necessary, but American credit is in good form, and the activity in trade and industry insures a large and legitimate demand for money.

Recent liquidation and lower prices for stocks are not only a relief to the money market, but secure a genuine improvement in financial conditions. Under such circumstances Europe will undoubtedly be willing to lend in the event of our requirements being urgent. Now that the Russian loan is out of the way, funds held to insure the success of that operation will be gradually released and the foreign situation helped thereby. The advance of the Bank of England rate to four per cent, which was due to the exceptionally low condition of its reserve, is, of course, a warning that gold will not come easily.

Nevertheless, it is quite certain that if the American markets need the precious metal they will be able to secure it. Recent liquidation in the stock market ought to result in a material contraction of loans, and thus strengthen the position of the local banks, since they have been enabled to largely shift San Francisco's demands upon Europe. Insurance companies have not yet begun to pay their losses with any freedom. These amount to somewhere around $150,000,000, and will be gradually paid. The effect of this has not been fully discounted on the stock market, and further sales of investments must be expected for making good this enormous loss of property.

GREAT DECLINE.

It is perhaps not sufficiently realized how great the decline in stocks has been. Since the high prices of 1905 many of the active shares have declined from thirty to eighty points. This is a tremendous shrinkage amounting to probably one thousand millions. That such a contraction could take place without involving single failure worth noting is remarkable testimony of the inherent strength of our financial situation. It perhaps can no longer be said that stocks are unduly high so long as industrial and commercial activity continues at its present level.

Securities have certainly receded to a more natural level, and liquidation if continued, should follow in other quarters where no recession has yet taken place after abnormally high prices. Speculation in real estate is still going on at a threatening pace, which cannot be indefinitely continued. Many commodities, especially those i... the metallic industries, are also selling too high for stability, and reactions would be beneficial.

Prices all round, costs of living, wages etc., are too high. Perhaps such reaction may not be long postponed, and Wall street, with its usual foresight, is discounting some of these movements. The Standard Oil investigation was another shock, and the proof of railroad collusion is likely to stimulate the demand for government railroad regulation. It is quite safe to assert that the condition of the market has been vastly improved by recent readjustment, and that many securities are now selling at a level offering reasonable inducements to careful investors.

Purchases on the margin, however, will have to be conducted conservatively. The market is still exposed to shocks and will not soon fully recover from recent blows. Besides, the monetary outlook, while improved, is not entirely free from danger and the future of business generally depends largely upon our having another good harvest. With the improved technical position of the market and the concentration of stocks in more numerous and stronger hands sharp rallies are likely to come at any time unless accident interferes. It should be remembered that losses have fallen not upon the public but upon rich holders, whose ... ties may have been crippled but who ... parently have not been totally irr... tated. An active and fluctuating ... seems likely for some time to co...

HENRY CL...

BULLETIN ISSUED MAY ...

The cliques were able to carry their stocks over the December and 1st of April money pinches and maintain prices when they should have had a big smash downwards, because they had secured time money to carry their loads. Their loans, however, have been maturing very rapidly recently and they have been unable to make satisfactory renewals and being called upon to pay up, have been forced to sell out their stocks. A good deal of the recent violent selling has come from that source.

This week's flurry in the stock market has simply been a rich man's scare and panic. The outside dealers in the market, owing to the excessively high prices prevailing, have for a long time past been kept by their brokers very conservative in their operations. Those who have made losses have been principally the large operators, who, owing to the adverse conditions, have become more or less demoralized, and by the process of reducing their accounts have only lost their book profits, consequently, there is no one who can be considered as very badly hurt. The position of the overloaded accounts has been a good deal like the people who indulge in high living during a winter's gay campaign and have gotten themselves into such a condition that they are recommended by their physician to take a trip abroad for the sake of getting a fit of seasickness while crossing, which is generally a sure cure for that trouble. This market has recently gone through a similar process which will make it more healthy and more vigorous during the coming summer months.

BROKERS PLEASED

The project of establishing a stock and bond exchange which was inaugurated last night, seems to have found favor with merchants and business men of this city and more especially men of means, who take an interest and are engaged in the mining business.

Financiers generally favor the proposition, if not for the purpose of engaging in the business themselves, at least for the sake of giving impetus to speculative enterprise and establishing here a branch of industry which will tend to keep a large amount of money in circulation in this section.

The speculative spirit has long controlled hundreds of people in San Francisco, and now that that city has been destroyed. In the destruction has been included the structures in which were stock and bond exchanges, it is but natural to feel that those who have long dealt in stocks and bonds should feel impelled to establish an exchange in this city when it is a self-evident proposition that such an organization is no longer possible across the bay

Brokers have already commenced to arrive and take up quarters in this city, and there is no doubt that they will be followed by a host of patrons. Indeed some of these patrons are already here because Oakland has for years been the home of some of the best known stock brokers who engaged in the business on the other side of the bay. These brokers say that the proposed exchange will be a success, and once it becomes established it will be patent that it will have come to remain. Speaking on this subject, today, J. M. Ricketts of the Ricketts Brokerage Company, 481 Eleventh street, in this city, said to a TRIBUNE reporter.

"The move to establish a Stock Exchange in this city is one of the best business moves which can be made. There has always been an exchange in San Francisco. The exchanges there were well patronized But they are all destroyed now. Stock exchanges depend upon the banks, but the banks are all away down town, whereas the people are three miles away. It would be useless to try to run an exchange under such circumstances.

"Now, no such difficulty would be experienced in Oakland. The banks are all in the same vicinity here and the exchange could be established in their midst.

"We are getting quotations by wire daily of the Goldfield, Bull Frog, Manhattan, Tonopah and Lida district mining stocks. The first telegram came through today since the fire It represents the closing quotation of the Tonopah Board of Trade last evening.

"We will get these quotations every day. We have only just commenced here, but we are doing an excellent business. They are buying a great deal of the stocks up.

"The brokers are coming over here from San Francisco, and when they come the patrons will follow them, and the exchange will stay in Oakland."

London Exchange, tel. transfers 4.85¾

Refined Silver, per oz., 1000 fine .. 67

As the local banks are doing but a limited business, the draft and telegraphic transfer rates from this city to New York are not quotable.

New York advices as to international exchange rates were as follows:

New York on Paris ... $5.18

New York on Mexico ... 1.98¼

New York on Berlin ... 94¾

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Prices of stocks at the opening of the stock market today started higher than last night with the dealings on a moderate scale and the changes generally narrow. A rise of 2 points in Anaconda and of 1¼ in Great Northern preferred were the only exceptions to the average of small fractional changes. St. Paul was the only important stock in the list to show a small decline. Scarcely half a dozen stocks of speculative prominence shared to any decided extent in the early advance.

While the general market was higher, traders realized steadily on recent purchases, especially Reading, Union Pacific, St. Paul, Smelting and the United States Steel stocks. Ultimately the selling of these undermined the progress elsewhere, and there was a general relapse which carried some of the leaders below yesterday's closing. Large operations were resumed in Reading at an advance of two points. The responses in the general market was very sluggish, but the decline was checked. Louisville & Nashville and Central Leather preferred rose ½, International Pump preferred 3, Virginia-Carolina Chemical 2¼, Lake Erie & Western 2¾, Chesapeake & Ohio 1⅛ and Texas & Pacific and Metropolitan Street Railway 1. Consolidated Gas and National Lead declined 1.

Bonds were steady at noon.

PHILOSOPHY.

"It's a mighty serious thing to be a father," observed the venerable man on the cracker barrel "If you boy turns out well, your wife gets all the credit and if he goes to the devil you get all the blame. And if he gets to be famous, just as likely as not he'll be ashamed of both of you."—Chicago Tribune.

Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names He says "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." FIND BODY IN RIVER

SAN JOSE, May 11—A special to the Mercury from Santa Cruz says:

The body of Lee Chapman, who on Tuesday last left this city with Miss Irene Mildred McKay, his fiancee on a fishing expedition along the San Lorenzo river, was found yesterday afternoon in a deep portion of the pond half a mile distant from the point where Miss McKay's body was found Wednesday The theory is that Miss McKay fell into the river and Chapman jumped in to save her

Chapman was an Australian, aged twenty-two and Miss McKay was twenty years old, born in Santa Cruz The couple were both students of the State University and were to have been married in a few weeks

THINK TLEGRAPHER ENDED HIS LIFE.

Mark Fleming a telegraph operator formerly employed in San Francisco who was driven from that city by the earthquake and fire died suddenly Wednesday night at Camp Luck at Adams Point under circumstances which indicate that he took his own life Fleming was found at 11 p m by one of the guards at the camp lying unconscious on the ground and was cared for by one of the nurses of the camp but he failed to respond to treatment and died thirty minutes later A bottle of carbolic acid was found beside him which leads to the belief that he may have committed suicide.

The remains were removed to the morgue and Coroner Mehrmann will hold an inquest to determine the cause of death The deceased was twenty-eight years of age, and so far as the authorities have been able to learn leaves no family in this part of the country

THE PLUNGER COMING.

The Elleford Company will open its second week at the Macdonough Theater on Monday May 14th with a big scenic production of Oliver Doud Byron's melodramatic success "The Plunger" The play has not been seen on the coast for several seasons and never at these prices of admission

It is one of the few melodramas that has lasted with the public for over two seasons and unlike most sensational productions does not depend on the scenic effects and blood and thunder to pull it through The story is an interesting one, and will please the most blase of theatergoers For next week a trio of San Francisco and Oakland favorites will appear in the cast George Webster Jim Corigan and Nortal McGregor These well-known people need no praise as they have made their reputation by their clever work on both sides of the bay

All of the old favorites of the Elleford Company will have congenial roles The production calls for a big cast and Manager Elleford is arranging for a production that will eclipse any stock presentation ever given in Oakland at popular prices

TO DISTRIBUTE NO CLOTHING THIS WEEK

There will be no supplies distributed from the Lafayette School building Seventeenth and West streets, Oakland until Monday May 14, except to those holding return checks issued from that building This is because of the removal from the Lincoln School building and the inability of those in charge to unpack and assort the supplies quickly in such limited quarters

Men's and women's shoes and hosiery men's pants overalls jumpers and underwear are needed immediately, also pillow cases towels, sheets soap, toilet articles, sanitary nankins and light weight underwear of every description It will facilitate the distribution greatly if those who do not hold return checks will remain away from the building and thus avoid confusion in supplying those who do
